Theme

*The people that walked in darkness
have seen
a great light.
Isaiah 9:2*

A large, light-colored geometric shape, possibly a stylized 'C' or a large triangle, is positioned on the left side of the page, partially overlapping the photograph of the building.

Dedication

To the glory of God and in recognition of His faithful servant, Gladys Quaderer, we dedicate the 1955 Shield. Her life,
"a pattern of good works," stands as a witness to Christian virtue.

*Oh! guide me and help me to walk in the light,
Till into Thy presence I come;
Thy love to my soul is the true beacon light,
The light of the cross leads me home.*

CARRIE ADAMS

President

Dr. G. D. Strohm, President of the Saint Paul Bible Institute, stands as a sentinel alert to resist mediocrity and as a pilot quick to promote progress.

Spring Term

One of the most valuable qualities contained in the training at the Saint Paul Bible Institute is the missionary zeal which pervades the school. The missionary program, consisting of daily prayer meetings, Friday evening missionary service, Sunday afternoon prayer meetings and the missionary pledge are directed by the officers of the Missionary Society. This group is elected each semester from the student body.

Missionary Meeting

The Friday night Missionary Meeting is a regular feature of the school week. Anticipated by all, it provides an opportunity for students to hear from missionary work around the world. The meeting is planned and conducted by the officers of the Missionary Society.

World Missions Night

The tenth annual program was presented the evenings of April 1 in the Minneapolis Auditorium, and April 2 in the St. Paul Auditorium. Over 11,000 people saw 360 students dressed in costumes from all over the world portraying missionary endeavor and the responsibility of our nation to proclaim the glad tidings. The program was centered around the theme "The Glory of the Lord"

World Missions

The program itself was designed to take the audience to different places in the world. The first scene was a patriotic sequence honouring liberty in America. The second scene narrated the history of the nations which lost their liberty behind the Iron Curtain, each represented by its flag. The third scene was an Oriental setting in which a student from the Philippines gave her testimony. The fourth scene was the same opening flag array with the addition of a cross. The choir and the speakers wove their messages into each scene, the program closing with the return of the Communist flags to the stage.

Part of the Oriental scene.

Leading the National Anthem is Professor J. Merrill Tannehill, who carries the weight of the program for many months.

America, the refuge of all men, defender strong . . . we pledge our faith, hold firm our bond, no man to oppress.

Trio sings "Perishing" in Chinese.

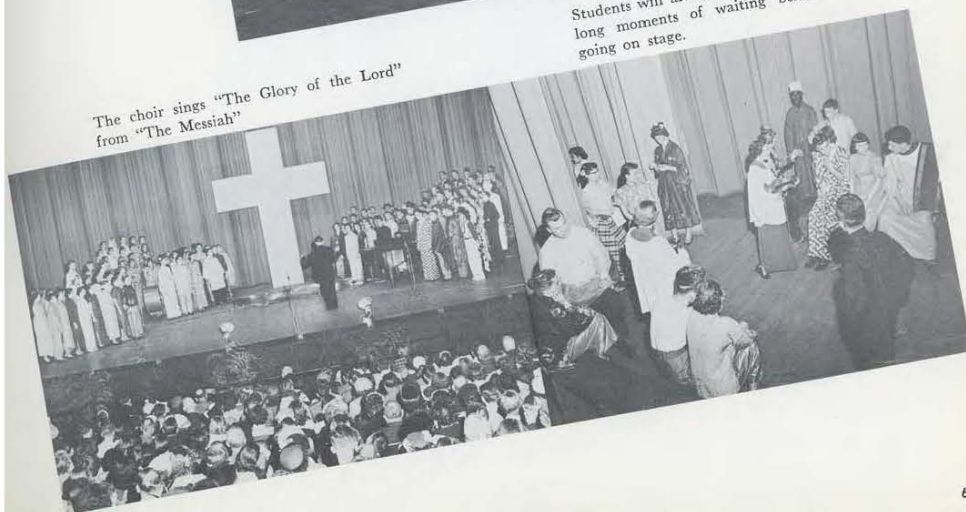

The flags of Communist-controlled countries leave the stage and disappear into the darkness.

Students will always remember the long moments of waiting before going on stage.

The choir sings "The Glory of the Lord" from "The Messiah"

World Missions

There's a lot of excitement over someone else's face.

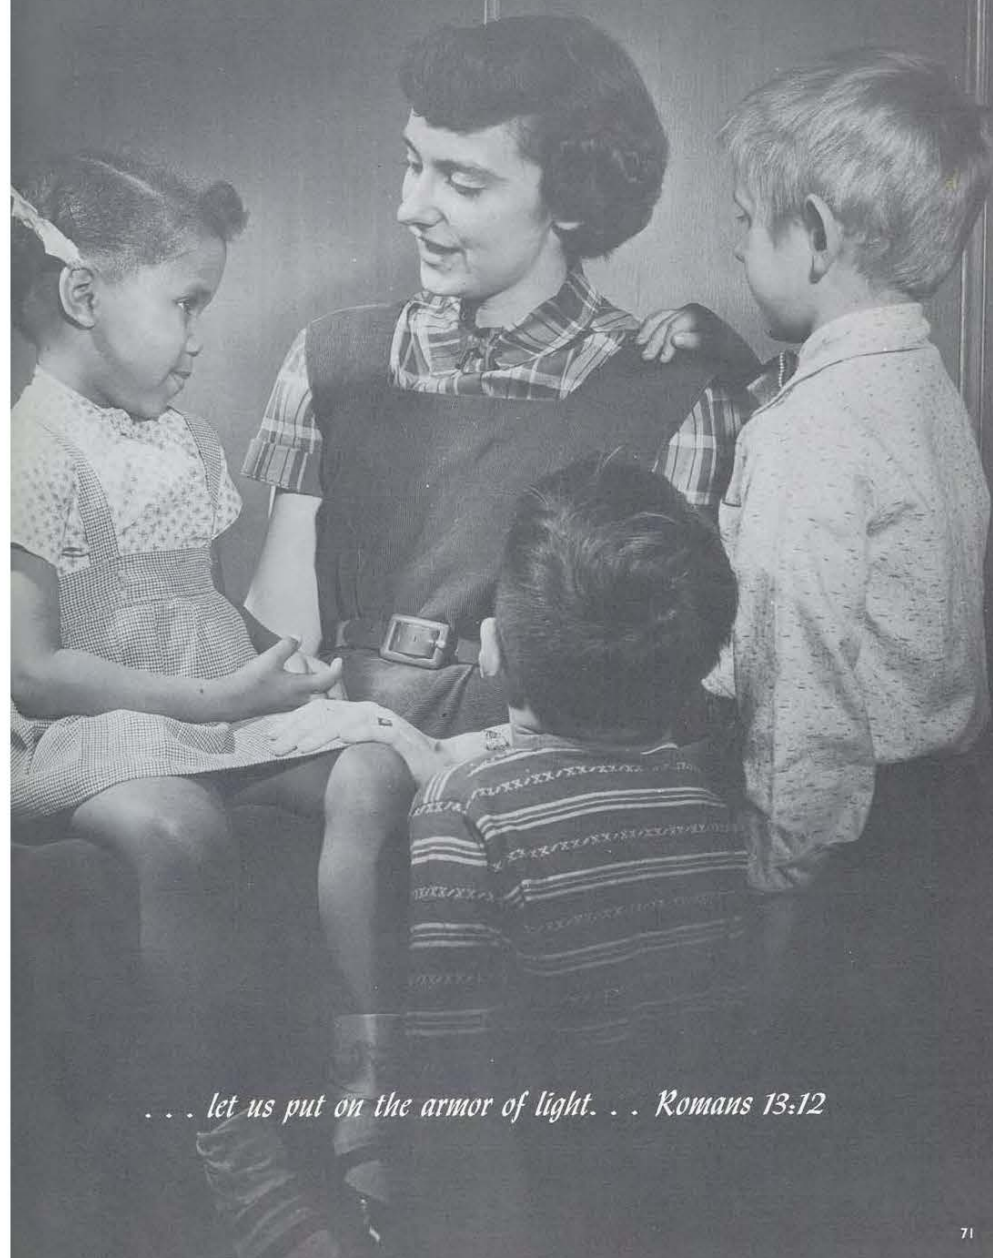

This is one phase of World Missions that girls never forget.

People from all over the country are attracted by the program.

There are 400 costumes, find your own!

Christian Service

... let us put on the armor of light. . . Romans 13:12

The Christian Service Department is a "service agency". While providing students with practical experience in Christian work, it serves a great number of churches, missions, and Christian projects in the Twin City area. Under the direction of Rev. George French and his assistant, Miss Elaine Madsen, the department is quick to discover new areas of service.

Recitals

Spring brings good music. The Music Department presents Seniors and some Juniors specializing in voice or an instrument. Each occasion is a milestone for the performer and a highlight in school activities.

Evelyn Englar, piano; Thursday, April 28, senior recital

Mrs. Joan Lininger, voice; Tuesday, May 10, senior recital

Ann Reams, piano; Retha Buck, organ; Thursday, March 10, junior recital

Musical Activities

A prelude of classical songs and hymns provided by the orchestra, complemented the Christmas program.

Activities

... walk as children of light. . . Ephesians 5:8

Registration Days

After wondering for many weeks what life at school would be like, Orison Cain gets a first glance at his room.

A seemingly endless line of customers keeps you company while you fill out your papers.

Having completed registration paper work, the bookstore supplies you with books and utensils.

You aren't finished with registration till Mr. Miller and Miss Scott have put away your earnings.

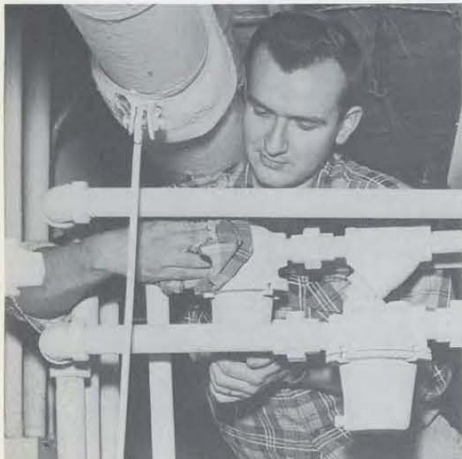

A nerve-racking hobby; like stamp collecting.

Campus Day

A wonderful morning in which everything is cleaned.

Some people call this window pain.

Drilling for dust.

For a change, the laundry gets a wash-job.

The meal is prepared at school by a group of assigned "volunteers".

Picnic

The afternoon is spent at Como Park with food, fun and fellowship.

The last round-up!

The pavilion shelters those who cannot take sun and food at the same time.

Usually the volleyball game is still going after most of the students have tired and gone.

Homecoming

Dedication of the Library Building

The Gertrude Rutenber Memorial Library, which was begun last spring, became a reality this year. The contribution made to our training by this new facility is a fit memorial to Mrs. Rutenber.

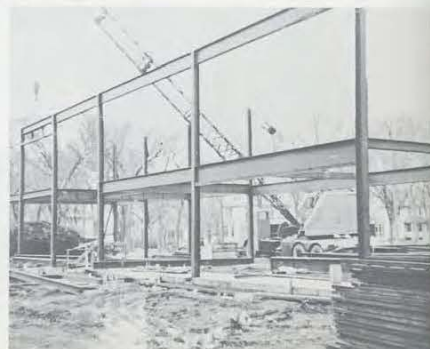

Friends and the Institute family on a chilly spring morning.

Ground-breaking ceremonies, April 2, 1954.

The tools of industry make a heavy job light.

Dr. Thomas Moseley presented the Dedicatory Address in the school chapel.

Following the service, the assembly went to the new building.

Anticipation characterized the outside ceremonies.

Rev. L. W. Pippert and Dr. G. D. Strohm, District Superintendent and President of the Institute respectively, open the doors to a better future.

For a full view of the building, we refer you to page 102.

Football Game

The inside team puts up a good fight but hasn't won a game within the last three years.

Cold weather and cheerleaders make the crowd jump and shout. To the students, Homecoming wouldn't be complete without a good game.

The outsiders won the game by a score of 14-6. The agreement says touch football, and bruises suggest that and then some.

Alumni Banquet

Presided by the Alumni President, Mr. J. C. Wenninger, the gathering was indeed a feast of spiritual truth and fellowship. Dr. Thomas Moseley, President of the Missionary Training Institute at Nyack, New York, brought a heart-searching message to climax the evening.

Halloween

Because of the fact that the library books and equipment hadn't been transferred to their new quarters, the faculty approved the use of the Reading Room on the second floor for the party. As you may judge by the pictures, laughter was the key expression to feeling.

Our Faculty and Staff put on a skit which was hilarious not only in action and dress, but in speech. The troupe in the background supplied appropriate music for the evening.

The accusation: Planting pumpkin seeds in a petunia bed. From left to right: Judge and secretary, accused, lawyer, officer, accusers.

The rapid and effective alibi of the defending lawyer spreads consternation on the faces of the accusers. Yet, after a wild court session the offender was found guilty.

Transfer student.

At the close of the party, a self-appointed Faculty Investigation Committee cut off all possibilities of a general insurrection.

Married Couples

The monthly meetings of this family of families range from outdoor parties to missionary speakers.

Joyce and Jim Noyce in Old Testament costume.

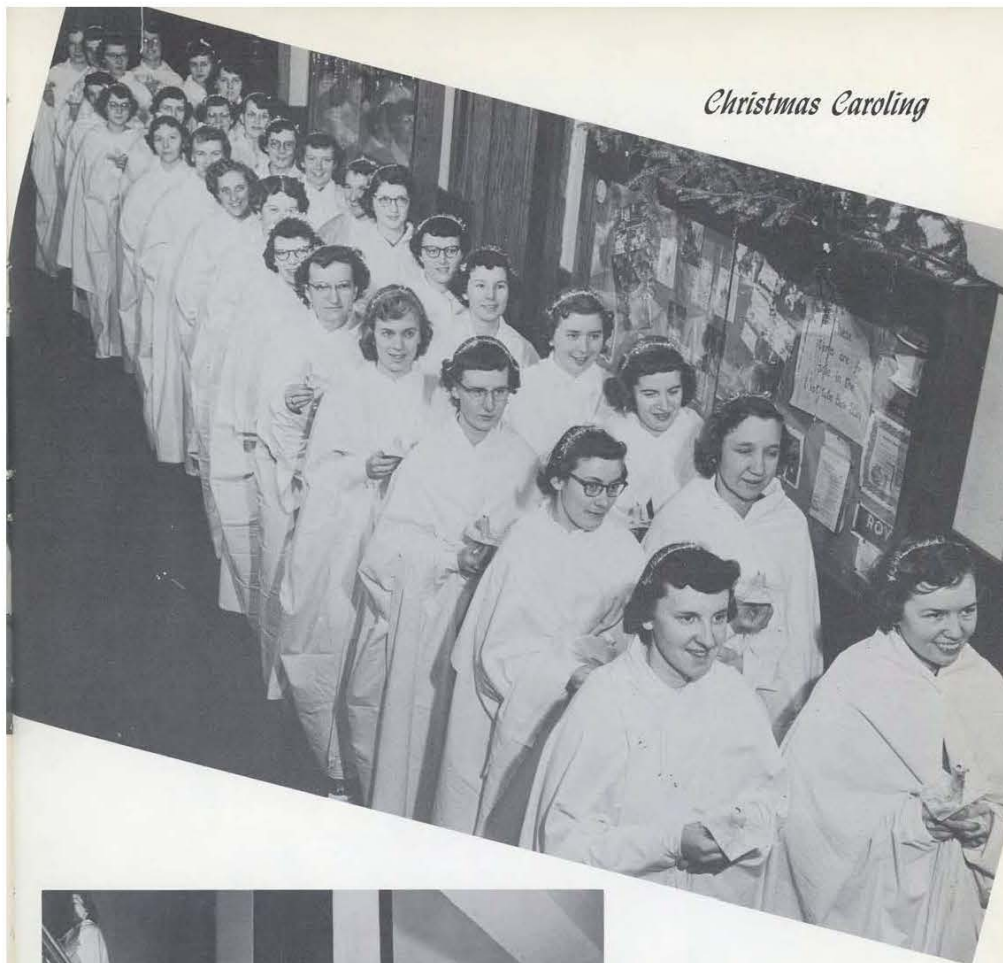

The Warren Wordens play a "stuffy" game.

Co-Laborers

Married women students and wives of students are organized in a social group known as the Co-Laborers. The Co-Laborers meet each month to give opportunity for wives of prospective Christian leaders to hear experienced Christian workers speak on various phases of Christian ministry.

Darlene Vohs, President

Caroline Rohne, Secretary
Pat Carr, Treasurer
Norma Thomas, Advisor

Christmas Caroling

The last day at school begins at the unusual hour of 4:30 A. M. when the senior girls, touring the halls of the dorms, awaken every soul to the chant of the never-aging carols.

Christmas Pageant

The birth of the Saviour.

The entire cast.

Mid-Semesters Party

Having completed the first semester of classes, the Student Council arranged an evening of sports at Medicine Lake. Sleigh rides, skating, tobogganing, and snow fights were followed by a period of thawing and refreshing.

The sleigh was fast enough for non-tobogganers

A Faculty freeze

Chit-chat

It took just a few minutes to track-up a winter masterpiece

Daily Obligations

Students gather not only on special occasions, but a scheduled life includes little duties and places which receive our attention daily.

Some put themselves through school by spending a few hours a day working in the kitchen.

Everyone is required to do at least one hour of detail work during the week.

The 11 o'clock mail-rush is a pleasure in spite of the jam.

Old Face-full gets plenty of attention and gives lots of service.

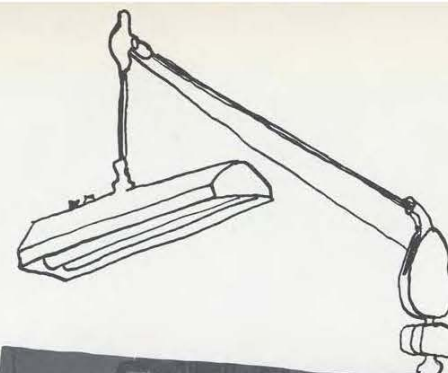

Occasionally the quietest group at school.

Shield Staff

Not everyone worked under the lights, but we are sure that the experience of producing THE SHIELD was of great value to all the staff.

MY BEST WISHES TO THE FRIENDS AND STUDENTS OF THE
ST. PAUL BIBLE INSTITUTE

ROBERT O. WESTLUND
GENERAL CONTRACTOR

1781 Hamline Ave. North

O Lord our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the earth!
Who hast set thy glory above the heavens.
When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,
The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;
What is man, that thou art mindful of him?

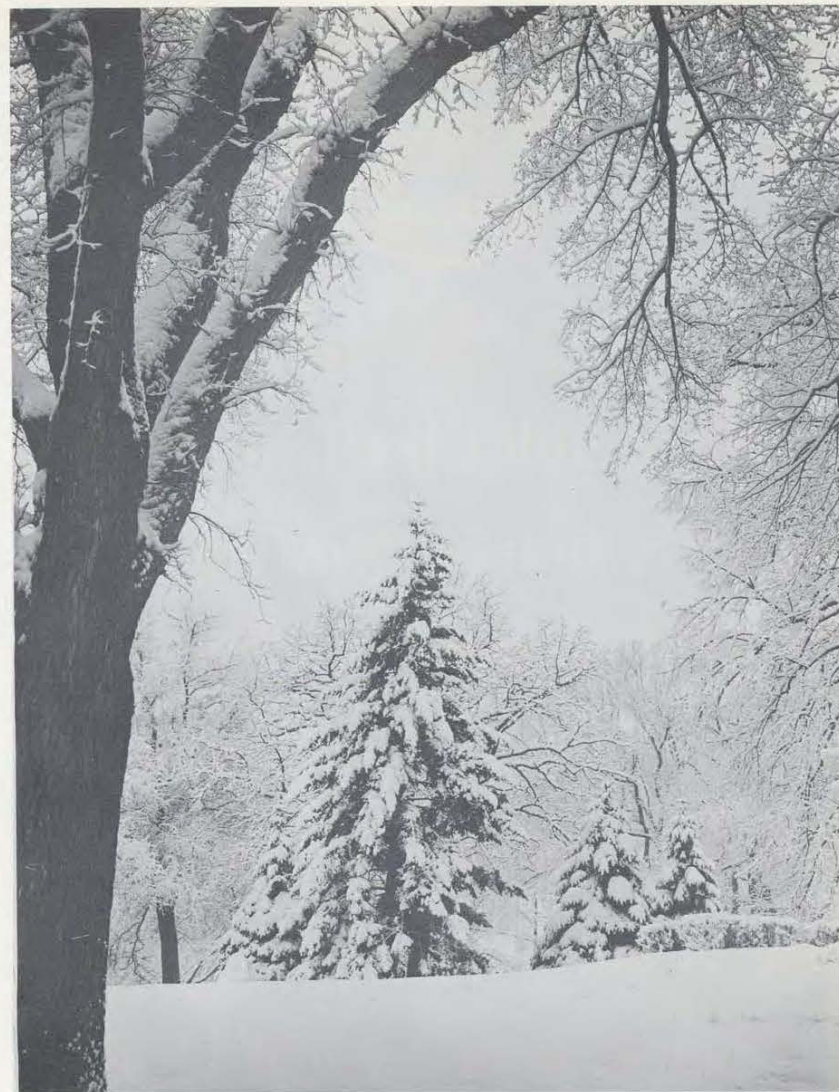

THE JUNIOR CLASS

The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof;
The world, and they that dwell therein.
For he hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

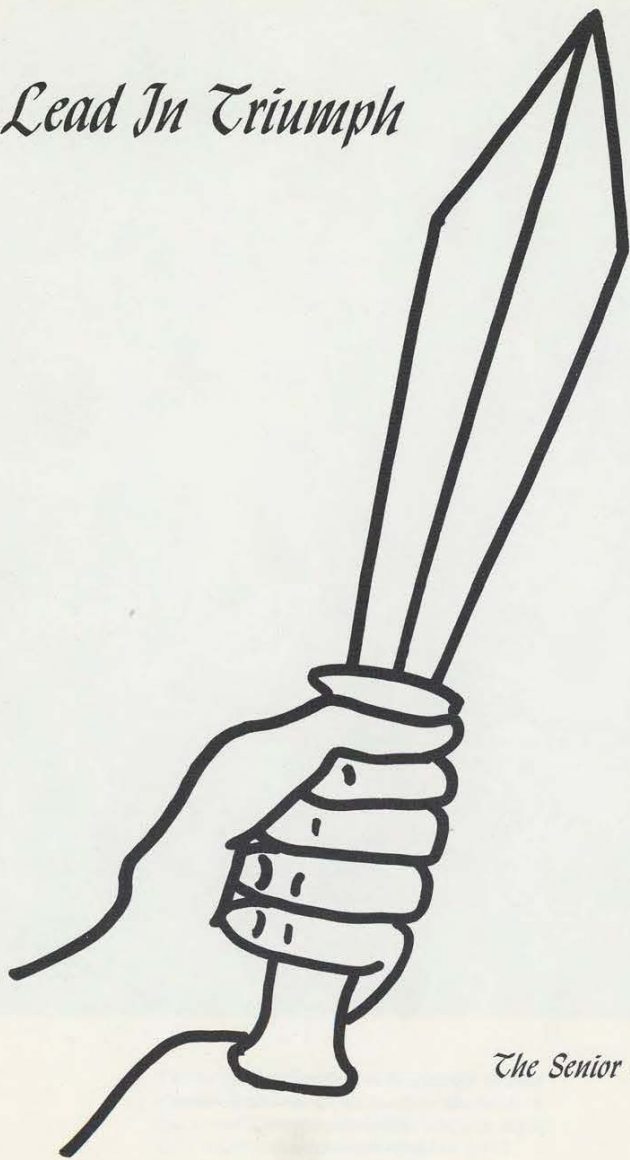

Yes! In my spirit doth Thy Spirit shine,
As shines the sunbeam on the new fallen snow.
Eager toward Thy presence; for in Thee
I live, and breathe, and dwell.

To the Sons and Daughters:
The Saint Paul Bible Institute
wishes the blessing of God
for her sons and daughters upon the completion of their training here. Continue in a consecrated manner and hold to the word of God.

The Faculty of the St. Paul Bible Institute

Justifiably Proud

When we chose the St. Paul Bible Institute as students, we entrusted ourselves and our preparation to her. We were not disappointed. The training and heritage given to us has many times over made recompense for the initial cost.

Now we are far away and our school days to some seem long ago. When we see our alma mater expanding and improving, we are gratified and want to express to those responsible for this development our full confidence and whole-hearted support.

It is our wish that the presence of the Lord will hallow and continue to overshadow the school of which we are justifiably proud.
