SALVATION

Inherent in man is the desire to worship some power greater than himself. Pursuing mere religious ceremonies does not suffice for man needs a Savior. Sin has corrupted the race, debased passions, and written its devastating effect upon faces. But, listen to the good news of the gospel: "Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners!"

The only Mediator, He bridged the mighty gulf between a Holy God and sinful men. In love He died as an offering for sin, satisfying God's justice and vindicating His holiness. Spotless, Christ took upon Himself the penalty of sin that He might bestow eternal life upon all who will receive Him as Saviour and Lord.

He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life and in no other is salvation to be found. Having sealed our redemption by rising from the dead, He ever lives to transform men's lives and to reflect His love from their faces. This Gospel is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believes.

DEDICATION

To the eighty-eight valiant missionary pioneers who have gone forth from the halls of this Institute bearing the Gospel Light to earths uttermost part, we respectfully dedicate this publication. In these momentous days when the very foundations of civilization are being shaken and men's hearts are failing them for fear, it becomes increasingly apparent that only that which is done for Christ is permanent. Accomplishments, culture, and governments are passing but Christ's Kingdom shall never be destroyed. Prayerfully the 1940 "Shield" is sent forth with the hope that it may further the advancement of His everlasting dominion.

The Institute and the City

Under the anointing of God the St. Paul Bible Institute, of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, has grown from a nucleus of four students in 1916 to its present enrollment of over two hundred. From this beginning in the home of its founder, the institute moved into the "old school" building on Sherburne where it continued until 1935 when the present location at Capitol and Hamline was obtained. This more adequate structure is the center of a fine campus facing a small park. God has wonderfully answered prayer for the Institute and honored it with a total enrollment of over nineteen-hundred students. Many of these, like the early Christians, have scattered everywhere preaching the Word. Eighty-eight graduates have gone forth to proclaim the Gospel on foreign fields. Many others are holding forth the Word of Life in the homeland.

The objective of the Institute is to assist Christian young people to a deeper consecration and larger usefulness through instruction in the Word of God, prayer, and practical Christian work. "God has prepared places for prepared people."

S. P. B. I. is providentially located here at the "Gateway of the Northwest". St. Paul is a metropolis of commerce, one of the most varied industrial and manufacturing cities of the United States. The Capitol of Minnesota, it is a city of beauty and culture. St. Paul can boast of crystal lakes entirely within the city limits, surrounded by parks of wonderful natural grandeur. Beautiful Como Park is within walking distance of the Institute. However, it is not because of her advantages, nor her beauty, that we love St. Paul; we love this place because of the St. Paul Bible Institute. Here we have raised our "Ebenezer." Here is our "Bethel". Here we have met God!

President

Rev. J. A. Peterson

Our capable President and industrious District Superintendent, Rev. J. A. Peterson, stands at the helm of this school, continually promoting its best interests, always ready to lend a helping hand, never too busy to utter a word of cheer, ever creating the atmosphere that "we are labourers together with God."

Page Ten

Rev. George D. Strohm

Need encouragement, counsel, or guidance along matters of practical Christian living? See the Dean! For out of a rich background of foreign and home missionary service and a knowledge of the battles and problems of we young folk, coupled with an unwavering faith in His sufficiency for our every need, and a great heart yearning to help us on our upward way, comes the ever-respected voice of wisdom.

Dean of Men

Rev. L. A. Perkins

The supervising of the male factor of our Institute lies in the capable hands of the Dean of Men, whose very presence creates a longing to possess a more workable knowledge of the Holy Scriptures, and who exhibits consistently a worthy example of that which he teaches and preaches, "Be ye doers of the Word".

Miss Cora Schultz

As Dean of Women and Matron, Miss Schultz stands unexcelled in her wise and thoughtful advice and sympathetic Christ-like attitude toward the perplexities of all. Too, the smoothness with which the various mechanisms of assorted household duties are maintained is to be largely credited to the calm, serene, and gracious character of our Matron.

RUTH JONES
Ancient History, Bible History, English.
 Always she exhibits an earnest heart, a willing mind, and a helpful hand ready to guide and direct us through the first year of readjusting ourselves to school life and to one another.

EVERETTE BACKLIN, B. A., B. D.
In his presentation of Greek, which greatly helps one to understand the New Testament, Mr. Backlin has won the admiration of all his students because of his patience, meekness, humbleness, and long-suffering.

GEORGE G. HULTGREN
Though engaged in a wide and varied range of activities, Mr. Hultgren is the cause of many hearty peals of laughter among the "song birds" of the school as he so ably directs them in "making melody unto the Lord".

THEODORE BERGMAN, B. MUS.
Piano, Organ, Harmony.
 Though the amateur pianists meet him with fear and trembling, he not only prompts us to more conscientious effort in pursuing our musical ambitions, but sends us on our way happier for having studied with him.

MAUDE I. STREET
Notation, Sight Singing, Piano.
 Her manner is one of utmost helpfulness whether encouraging some disheartened young pianist or instructing students in the beginning of a "musical career". Everyone appreciates her sweet, knowing smile!

MAXINE TANNEHILL
More than one student has been inspired to higher heights and deeper depths through the mellow, soothing tones of the marimba, and the exuberant, brilliant notes of the trumpet as produced by Mrs. Tannehill. We all agree that this family is an asset through which the Institute is greatly benefited.

CONSECRATION

Sacrifice is the keynote of the Christian life. This includes the surrender of our lives to God. When we conform to His will, old ambitions are superseded by higher ones. We no longer live for ourselves for Christ lives in us. The terrible fact that multitudes are daily passing into eternity under the condemnation of unforgiven sin should cause every believer to seek his place in the perishing harvest field. However, the call to consecration is not based upon a negative appeal. It is the love of Christ that constrains us to yield ourselves as living sacrifices to be consumed for the benefit of our Lord. The evangelization of the world is our supreme duty today. How can we remain unmoved by Christ's unmistakable command to preach the Gospel to every creature? Jesus' blood is efficacious to purge the sins of all who believe, yet millions have not so much as heard His name. He is, at once, the motive power and the end of Gospel preaching. Glorious rewards await those who take up their cross and follow in His steps.

QUIET HOUR

"Take time to be holy"

CLASS POEM

THE CHARGE

Committed unto us
A charge that we must keep:
This Gospel of Salvation.
Awake! Cast off thy sleep!

Reconciled to God,
Indwelt by wondrous peace,
Assurance of forgiveness,
True joys that never cease.

High privilege, indeed!
Who would not haste to tell
The great Good News, all glorious
Which rescues men from Hell.

Constrained by Christ's own love,
Who paid loves greatest price;
Shall any petty dream of ours
Be deemed a sacrifice?

But dare we meet the Challenge
With tools dull and few,
And carelessly perform a task
Which Angels yearn to do?

Nay, Arrows sharp we'll use,
Mark carefully the Goal,
Our best infilled with His best
Salvation's Bell will toll.

Commanded by the Lord,
We dare not make delay
Lest sadly He should look in vain
For fruitage in that Day.

Aye, forward then for Christ
With blood-stained flag unfurled,
We'll carry forth the Gospel Light
Until it girds the World.

—Elizabeth McNaughton

Senior Meditations

"As the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters; so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God." Psalm 123:2

Today, as seniors we stand on the threshold of our ministries. For three years we have been storing our minds and hearts for the time of this entrance. We have sought heavenly wisdom for our lives here below. We have striven to become laborers worthy of the hire and fitted for every good work. Now our hearts are burning within us as we realize the world's great need for the Message which we bear. The woe is upon us if we fail to tell it out.

In wonder we look back upon the way which the Lord has led us to this hour. Seeming insurmountable barriers have proven but the stepping-stones to that which is higher. Disappointment and heartbreak have only begun the mellowing which He desires be fulfilled. Exultation and triumph have surged and ebbed until we understand that He must increase but we must decrease. We praise our Lord for the furnace of trial as well as the green pasture of satisfaction. He has led us through the valleys as well as to the mountain peaks. Surely it has been glory all the way.

Commencement brings the pangs of parting from beloved friends; yet we rejoice in the open door which lies before us. Moulded into a fellowship which cannot be severed by time or distance we unitedly "press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." Happy days at S. P. B. I. are drawing to a close, yet we are glad because our initial training is completed and we shall soon go forth in His name. Our concern is not whether our niche be great or small, but that it is His best for our lives. The future is veiled, but not to Him in whose Hands we are. To our successors we leave our motto: Get thy tools ready; God will give thee work"—and our parting request: "Brethren, pray for us!"

In Memoriam

To the memory of Dorothy Jean Block

June 6, 1916—October 24, 1938

Who entered the portals of S. P. B. I. to share, though only for a year, our joys and sorrows, trials and blessings, failures and triumphs.

Whose words of cheer in testings, patience in affliction and acts of kindness brought sunshine and encouragement to all.

Whose eager, earnest spirit has been called into the presence of our Lord where all is perfect peace.

Whose memory will remain among all her acquaintances until that day when we, too, shall know eternal rest with Him.

Just second year students, but we can feel our "seniority" growing upon us. Gladly with songs of praise we look forward to one more year of training.

Jesus said, "I am the vine, ye are the branches", and we have also found Him to be the Husbandman who trims, prunes, and grafts new life upon the branches. On our knees in prayer He has broken us. In our classes from the lips of godly teachers we took our food from His Word. In daily Christian fellowship with each other we grow in grace and manifest His sweet spirit of brotherly love. Precious times of of testing have taught us to be patient, to be still and know that He is God.

We have learned to love the overcoming life. Therefore, forsaking all, we press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

First Year Class

From the four corners of the United States and from Canada we came. Upon entering the halls of S. P. B. I. we received a very hearty welcome and readily became adjusted to our new environment. With much interest we were introduced to those who are travelling this journey with us.

The spiritual atmosphere of the Institute appealed to us. During the evening fellowship hour in the dining room we became better acquainted and enjoyed the many interesting and varied testimonies. Studying God's Word and subjects essential to the proclamation of the gospel, our hearts were filled to overflowing.

Chapel services every morning proved to be seasons of heavenly refreshments as we paused to worship God in the beauty of holiness. Our spiritual life was strengthened as we attended the many prayer meetings and became interested in world-wide missions. Having travelled thus far on our journey, we recount with joy the blessings we have received here at S. P. B. I.

ACADEMIC YEAR

Like all the others, we have been deeply impressed with the Christian association and fellowship that we have enjoyed with our classmates. This fact is doubtless the outstanding asset of our school life. Every prayer service, social events, and class hour has drawn us closer to one another than any earthly tie. This has deepened the appreciation of each academic student for every interest of the school and for the faculty who have been so patient and sacrificing in giving counsel and advice.

We know that these years spent at S. P. B. I. in such an atmosphere will produce joy and enthusiasm for the Lord's work. We praise Him for having been led to this school and having been "kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last day."

SERVICE

Consecration finds its great objective in service to Christ. As His ambassadors our chief concern is that of influencing men for Him. Every contact of life brings its opportunity. Service is not our working for Christ but with Him as co-laborer. It is Christ within, reaching men through us. Jesus was motivated by an overwhelming compassion for men. We must be ambitious for Him, ever pressing forward in the power of His Spirit to other "lost sheep". His service is exacting, demanding qualities which all do not possess, yet He is willing to use all who are willing to be used. The responsibility is so great and our lack of wisdom so appalling that personal assent and preparation is not sufficient, except we be "sent". Our lives of active service for Christ must always be deeply implanted in prayer and purity of living.

Library

The library, with its shelves of books and magazines, lends itself to our edification and to our devotional life. It has been dedicated to the study of God's Word. Here we study to show ourselves approved unto God, workmen that need not be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth.

Girl's Recreation Room

The recreation room has been set aside for the ladies who live and work outside the school. It provides a place for rest, study, and recreation. Every noon the "outside" girls band together for a season of spiritual fellowship. God has blessed and answered prayer as each individual's burdens have been brought to the Lord.

Spreading the "Good News" of the Gospel:—Through mission services—Through tract distribution—Through children's work.

TRACT SOCIETY

The Word is given forth not only through public services but also by many students actively engaged in personal evangelism by distributing tracts. This work is directed by the Tract Society and supported by student offerings. The new plan of wrapping tracts in Cellophane enclosing return address cards has brought about encouraging results.

PRACTICAL CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Actual Christian Service is an essential complement in the training of the Christian worker. Calls are constantly received from churches in and near the Twin Cities for preachers, evangelists, gospel singers, prayer meeting leaders, mission workers, and Sunday School teachers. Appointments are made in response to these calls at the discretion of the Faculty Committee. This department has proved a splendid asset in the training of the students and an effective means of service to the churches. Indispensable, we have found, are the fine school bus and many private cars which are kept busy transporting the students to their various places of ministry. The many conversions and blessings brought to others speak highly of the recognized importance of this department.

SIMPSON MEMORIAL CHURCH

Simpson Memorial Church has opened its doors every year to us as students of the St. Paul Bible Institute. It has been our church home during the school term. Thus, in Sunday School, worship services, young people's gatherings, and prayer meetings, we have found this church our sanctuary where we worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

The Chorus

On Tuesday afternoon of each week may be heard melodious music floating out from the Institute Chapel where the "song-birds" of the school have assembled for a period of relaxation, recreation, and inspiration through song. Pure, sweet music is the end to be reached in this school activity. The old favorite hymns are filled with new, beautiful meaning and unfamiliar selections are made to become priceless jewels when interpreted under the baton of Professor Hultgren. Singing is an art to be much cultivated; for, in it the most delicate of instruments is made to respond to inward feelings by outward expressions. For this reason the chorus is apprehended with eagerness by all who would tend to develop this art and not only sing for the pleasure of it, but also to go out, as occasions demand, to share the blessing of song with others.

To be a member of the band is a desire of each musically-inclined individual who enters the Institute. Previous training and present hours of seemingly long, tedious practice are considered well rewarded on that day when the player is regarded as a full-fledged band member. The rehearsals are a little foretaste of the enjoyable times spent in ministry through "note" on the annual band tour. During the past three years, this ten-day spring tour has been anticipated and participated in with much joy. The male chorus has been a concert specialty.

Whether in practice or concert, each band member, under Professor Tannehill's capable direction and management, is made to realize the necessity, first of all, of harmony in the soul which then results in the production of beautiful music unto the Lord.

Permanent Service Assignments

Many workers are called to fill permanent assignments in the different fields of ministry. The students are given these assignments in accordance with their previous training, experience, and individual preferences in view of their future work. Of the various calls for practical Christian work which have come, Sunday School endeavors stand among the foremost; here we are found serving as teachers and superintendents. Churches in need of song leaders and choir members find our students capably fitted. Many pulpits within the Cities as well as the more rural districts find at S. P. B. I. worthy ministers who are regular in their Sunday ministry as well as mid-week services and Bible study groups. One of the most noteworthy forms of blessing comes through the permanent mission assignments; groups from the school give forth messages and programs every Sunday which are mightily used to His glory. Here, many a student whose heart is aglow meets a hungry soul, and a contact for the Gospel message is made.

Summer Activities

Below: Gospel Teams—The Ambassadors—The Messengers
Lower Right: Other opportunities for evangelism.

At the close of the school term the active Christian work of the student body is by no means at an end. Under the signal favor of God, evangelism in Summer Bible School work has afforded splendid opportunities. During the vacation time many pulpits and Bible study groups are left in charge of students. Gospel teams have carried on extensive conference and evangelistic programs while on tour throughout the United States and Canada. Surely no student need be at a loss for a profitable ministry during the summer.

Bringing Back The King!

"Now, therefore, why speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?" II Samuel 19:10

This question was asked concerning King David, but it might well be asked the general lukewarm church of today. According to the teaching of King Jesus, the hindrance in the way of His return is the fact that the Gospel has not yet been preached to every kindred, tribe and nation. To hasten the return of our Blessed Sovereign, we, the students of the St. Paul Bible Institute, are ardent boosters of the Foreign Missionary Program.

Dr. A. B. Simpson's vision has never died within the Christian and Missionary Alliance, which organization we represent.

"The Great Commission has never been repealed."

"The lights for missions still are green."

"To the Regions Beyond" is still the watchword of the Church.

The missionary activities of the Institute are under the direction of the Missionary Society. The officers are elected once a year by the student body. They strive to keep Missions ever uppermost on the school horizon.

Every day at noon a prayer service is devoted to missionary needs. Up to date prayer requests are circulated and definite results have been felt the world around. The Lord allows us to see a few of these, but we are confident that the greater part is hidden to be revealed in that "Great Day".

The Friday Evening Missionary Meeting is the outstanding event of the school week. The program is carefully arranged by the Missionary Society and climaxed by an inspirational message from a returned missionary, who speaks till our "hearts burn within us".

Missionary Prayer Bands meet each Sunday afternoon, each student joining a group interested in the field of his choice. What a sweet savor ascends to God on His Day from these hearts who unselfishly labor in prayer for the lost and dying.

A highlight in the school year is the Missionary Convocation. This service, consisting of consecrated music and stirring missionary messages, is arranged and presented by the students. Many lives have been dedicated to the Lord for full-time service at these memorable gatherings.

The annual missionary pledge is a practical step of faith. This year in dependence upon God we pledged Two Thousand Two Hundred Dollars.

From the doors of our school some eighty-five missionaries have gone forth to all parts of the world so that we may joyfully say, "The sun never sets upon the students of the St. Paul Bible Institute."

Our missionary-minded faculty keep the vision and challenge of missions continually before us. With all these helpful influences around us, he who leaves without a missionary vision does so wilfully. A searching comment from Keith Falconer brings us face to face with our responsibility:

"While vast continents are shrouded in almost utter darkness, and hundreds of millions suffer the horrors of heathenism, the burden of proof rests on you to show that the circumstances in which God has placed you, were meant by God to keep you out of the foreign field."

World Band

"LOOK ON THE FIELDS FOR THEY ARE WHITE ALREADY TO HARVEST." John 4:35.

Can you picture the Saviour beholding a ripened grain field and using it thus as an object lesson to His disciples? There is no time to waste in sending the Gospel forth, for, "A hundred thousand souls a day—are passing to their doom."

The "World Band" includes Japan, the Philippine Islands, the Netherlands East Indies, and the Palestine-Arabian Border. These lands are scattered widely over the world and represent numerous tribes with their different languages and strange customs. Much wisdom is needed in "Sowing the seed beside these waters."

Remarkable results have come from the last eleven years of labor among the "Wild Men of Borneo". Over 11,000 Dyaks have been converted, and the word is being divinely owned by the Holy Spirit. New advances have been made in Malaysia among the Sakais. Primitive tribes have been discovered in New Guinea and plans are in progress for their evangelization.

The Philippine Islands, with Catholics, Moslems, and pagans, show a fruitful increase in converts. Satanic power opposes every inch of ground taken in the Palestine-Arabian Border. Pray much for the faithful laborers in that field.

Although some portion of the Bible has been translated into one thousand of the world's languages, one thousand more tribes still have not received the Word in their native tongue.

As you look on the fields, look too in the face of the Lord Jesus whose heart is yearning for a plenteous harvest. Offer Him your services as a harvester and live with the joy of knowing you have made His heart glad.

"Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?"

Idols by the wayside where India's millions bow down and worship—"Where every prospect pleases and only man is vile."—A Bible woman telling forth the Gospel as the natives are working—A snake charmer performing his tricks—Indian Children.

INDIA

"MULTITUDES, MULTITUDES, in the VALLEY OF DECISION!"
Joel 3:14

How vividly these words portray India's three hundred fifty million people. The depressed classes are revolting against the dreadful wrongs of the caste system and are inviting other religions to show them something better. At a recent mass meeting where several heathen religions were being presented, one of our Alliance missionaries was asked to show the advantages of Christianity. With great joy he offered to them One, the only One who could meet their need. God give us Spirit-filled leaders who will step in at this crisis hour and lead these masses to decide for Christ!

Can you hold in your mind's eye a picture of the smoke of five hundred thousand villages lying in utter darkness and ignorance of Him, who is the "Light of the World"? If the people of India were put shoulder to shoulder, they would encircle the entire globe; of this vast number only one in every mile goes to Sunday School!

As a blessed contrast of the appalling facts comes a report from Viramgam that seventeen Sunday Schools are held weekly which reach three hundred non-Christian children. The Lord Jesus yearns to similarly be carried to "Other cities" and needs someone, perhaps you, who like the humble donkey of the Scriptures, will carry Him there.

Hundreds of Indian states are still unoccupied by any missionary society. Illiteracy is a tremendous obstacle in the evangelization of India, for ninety-two percent of the population are unable to read or write.

In the light of India's crying need, and with the Saviour's last command ringing in our ears, shall we not go, give, and pray for a great spiritual awakening amongst these Multitudes in the Valley of Decision? Christ cared so much that He died for India. HOW MUCH DO YOU CARE?

Sitting in DARKNESS and in the SHADOW OF DEATH." Psalm 107:10.

What a desolate picture, and yet how sadly true it is of Africa! Not only is she called the "Dark Continent", not only are her natives Dark-skinned, but the Darkness of Sin, Superstition, and Ignorance has settled like pitch black night from Cape Town to Cairo. How they need the Bright and Morning Star to shine in their hearts! How they need Him, who is the Light of the World, to banish their DARKNESS!

During the past year the African workers have counted it all joy to "PRAY, PLOD, and PRAISE" their way through numerous difficulties. In the Gabon two couples are responsible for the evangelization of eleven tribes. In the region where the notable "Prophet Harris" traveled years ago many churches are waiting for some one to tell them about the "Jesus Way". Three hundred tribes in Africa have never heard the "Good News"! "Shall we to souls benighted the lamp of life deny?"

A miraculous movement of the Holy Spirit has resulted in the conversion of many bigoted Mohammedans. It happened this way: A Mohammedan man became impressed with the name of Jesus while reading the Koran. He cut out everything except the parts about Jesus and made a new book with those parts. Then he started to witness to others till a great number were saved. Recently missionaries have had the privilege of instructing them more perfectly and telling them about the "Jesus of the Book".

Africa's greatest need is for Spirit-filled men to go forth in the power of the Holy Ghost to bring about a revival for which many are praying and longing. Will you be satisfied to stand empty-handed before the Saviour when you might have brought with you hundreds, yea, even thousands of Africans?

FRENCH INDO-CHINA

"OTHER SHEEP I have which are not of this fold: them also I must bring." John 10:16.

Ten thousand of these Other Sheep have been led safely into the fold in French-Indo China as a result of obedience on the part of the Christian and Missionary Alliance to a God-given vision. But there are still 27,000,000 for whom we are responsible who have never heard the Gospel. These people form one-third of the entire constituency of the Alliance. Won't you take them upon your heart for prayer?

In the past year many tribes have heard the Gospel for the first time. A gracious revival among the Moi tribes brought the joy of salvation to many, but eighty pagan tribes have never heard of the Saviour. This is the day of opportunity in this country; the war has not yet closed its doors, and the French Government is favorable to our Mission. Heaven's Bank pays large dividends on Missionary investments. Let us buy up every opportunity!

Knowing that the natives have a more effective ministry than the foreigners ever could have, our Mission has established numerous Bible Schools, Short Term and otherwise, throughout the country. Like burning embers the students leave the schools and scatter the warmth and light of the Gospel wherever they go.

Tonkin, Cambodia, Annam, Laos, Cochin-China, and East Siam—each of these fields present a perplexing problem to the Missionary. Won't you bend your knee and pray, or unlock your purse and give, or pack your trunks and go, that these Other Sheep may have at least one chance to hear about the Good Shepherd?

SOUTH AMERICA

"AM I MY BROTHER'S KEEPER? Genesis 4:9.

Our responsibility in bringing the Gospel to South America is increased when we realize that she is our "Sister Continent". Dare we like Cain try to shift the responsibility with the question, "Am I my brother's keeper?"

You may say, "Hast not South America Christianity enough?" True, South America has a degraded form of Christianity but Christianity without Christ is no better than Mohammedanism, Hinduism, or any other false religion. Although the country is over-run with priests, and crucifixes may be seen on every hand, yet the true and living Christ whom we know is unknown to them.

The greatest stretch of unevangelized territory in the world lies in the center of South America. Seventeen million pagan Indians are hidden away in the inner regions of Latin America. These with their 500 tribal languages, and dwelling as they do in almost inaccessible places, present a vital challenge to daring youth. The Amazon and its tributaries furnish 10,000 miles of navigable waters to reach the 8,000,000 people who live there. In Northern Peru a stretch of territory larger than our own thirteen original states has no evangelical missionary.

The printed Word is one of the most effective methods of evangelization. Many have been saved through the reading of a Gospel portion. The radio and sound truck are reaching countless thousands with the "Message of Love" daily.

Will Christ have to look at us sadly in "That Day" and say, "The voice of the brother's (South America's) blood crieth unto me from the ground," or will you gladly answer now, "Here am I, Lord, send me!"

"CAREST THOU NOT THAT WE PERISH?" Matthew 4:38.

It was the faithless disciple who rudely awakened the Master thus; but to the sleeping church can you not hear the lost millions of China crying out the same words?

One-fourth of the human family lies in China, and although Robert Morrison blazed the trail for missionary work over one hundred years ago, the task is far from finished. Statistics show that much of the interior is unevangelized.

The horrors of war are to be seen on every side in China, but even the war is working out for good in some respects. The Chinese Christians are being driven inland and the Precious Seed is being scattered as they go. The heroic acts of the Early Church are being re-enacted in China today.

Tibet, that formidable stronghold of Satan in years gone by, has at last opened her doors to the Gospel. New missionaries are needed, who with faith and courage like Joshua and Caleb, will enter and possess the land.

Heathen China is the only country in the world with a Christian Ruler. How we ought to pray that divine wisdom may be given to this General. Communism has taken hold upon this land with its rule of hate and terror. How they need Christianity with its Gospel of love. Will you help to send it there?

Perishing, Perishing, Hark! How they call us:

"Bring us your Saviour, oh, tell us of Him;

We are so weary, so heavily laden

And with long weeping our eyes have grown dim."

Contrasts in old China—A Christian household and a heathen festival—A pagan temple and the interior of a Christian church—The street cobbler.

THE SHIELD STAFF

The Shield is the annual student publication of the St. Paul Bible Institute of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. Sponsored by the Senior Class its production and distribution has been made possible through splendid cooperation on the part of the faculty, alumni, present students, friends, and advertisers. With Rev. L. A. Perkins as advisor, the editorial staff was headed by Kenneth Hilton, Editor-in-Chief; June Rose Sanborn, Assistant Editor; and Joseph C. Wenninger, Art Editor. The business department was supervised by Stanton Richardson, Business Manager; and Lois Dueholm, Secretary. Pictures and articles were submitted by various members of the Student Body. Annual sales were promoted by students under the direction of ten team-captains from the Senior Class. The theme of missions throughout the book has been pursued in the hope that some who read might be stirred to a deeper consecration and a renewed vision.
