

We thank Thee, our Heavenly Father, for Thy bountiful mercies. We praise Thee for life more abundant through Thy grace. We worship Thee in the beauty of holiness, and lift up our hearts in praise unto Thee.

Realizing our human weaknesses and recognizing Thy divine wisdom and power, we turn to Thee in this hour of need. We beseech Thee, our Father, for Thy wisdom, guidance and strength that we may go forward into fields of service better

Departments

Theological

The purpose of the Theological Department is to train young people in order that they might be "workmen that need not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth." As future preachers, pastors, and evangelists, they need to be fully equipped in heart and mind to minister to needy souls and to tell of the marvelous grace of God.

Missionary

In response to the command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature", students lift their eyes to the whitened harvest fields of the earth. The Missionary Department affords training for those who go to tell the Story of Love to the nations.

Christian Education

The Christian Education Course is offered to young people with a desire for a working knowledge of the Scriptures as a preparation for Christian leadership.

Christian service today calls for specialized training—workers who are at home in the Scriptures. This course meets that demand.

In addition to the regular diploma, students receive a diploma from the Evangelical Teacher Training Association which authorizes them to teach the preliminary training course of that Association.

Saint Paul Bible Institute, a progressive school of Christian Education, trains its students with the objective of making them soul-winners with a message.

Choral Club

The most vital musical organization of the St. Paul Bible Institute is the Choral Club. The ministry of its members is a source of deep spiritual blessing because of their well-directed musical ability and their consecrated Christian lives. The Choral Club has had the privilege during the past year of making several tours to "sing our great Redeemer's praise."

BAND

Through the music of the Institute Band the joys of the Christian life are expressed. The beautiful harmony of instruments played for the glory of God finds response in the hearts of those living in tune with their Lord. With Professor J. M. Tannehill as director, students learn to play music that stimulates the heart to will and do.

Bible Music

The Bible Music Course offers an opportunity for students with musical ability to specialize in the field of sacred music both as a composer and a minister of music.

Private Instruction

Through private instruction, vocally and instrumentally, students are prepared to use music in presenting the gospel.

Radio

Radio has won an indispensable place in the program of Gospel presentation. In accord with this Saint Paul Bible Institute School of Music offers training in this field adequate to equip the Christian worker with the fundamentals of radio broadcasting technique. The transcription equipment of the School gives an outlet to musical talent in the form of fine recordings originating in our radio room and sent to various radio-ministers already in the field.

The recent addition of a beautiful, up-to-date Hammond Organ with latest attachments now offers private instructions to many of our Music School students, as well as a source of inspirational music for recordings.

Night Classes

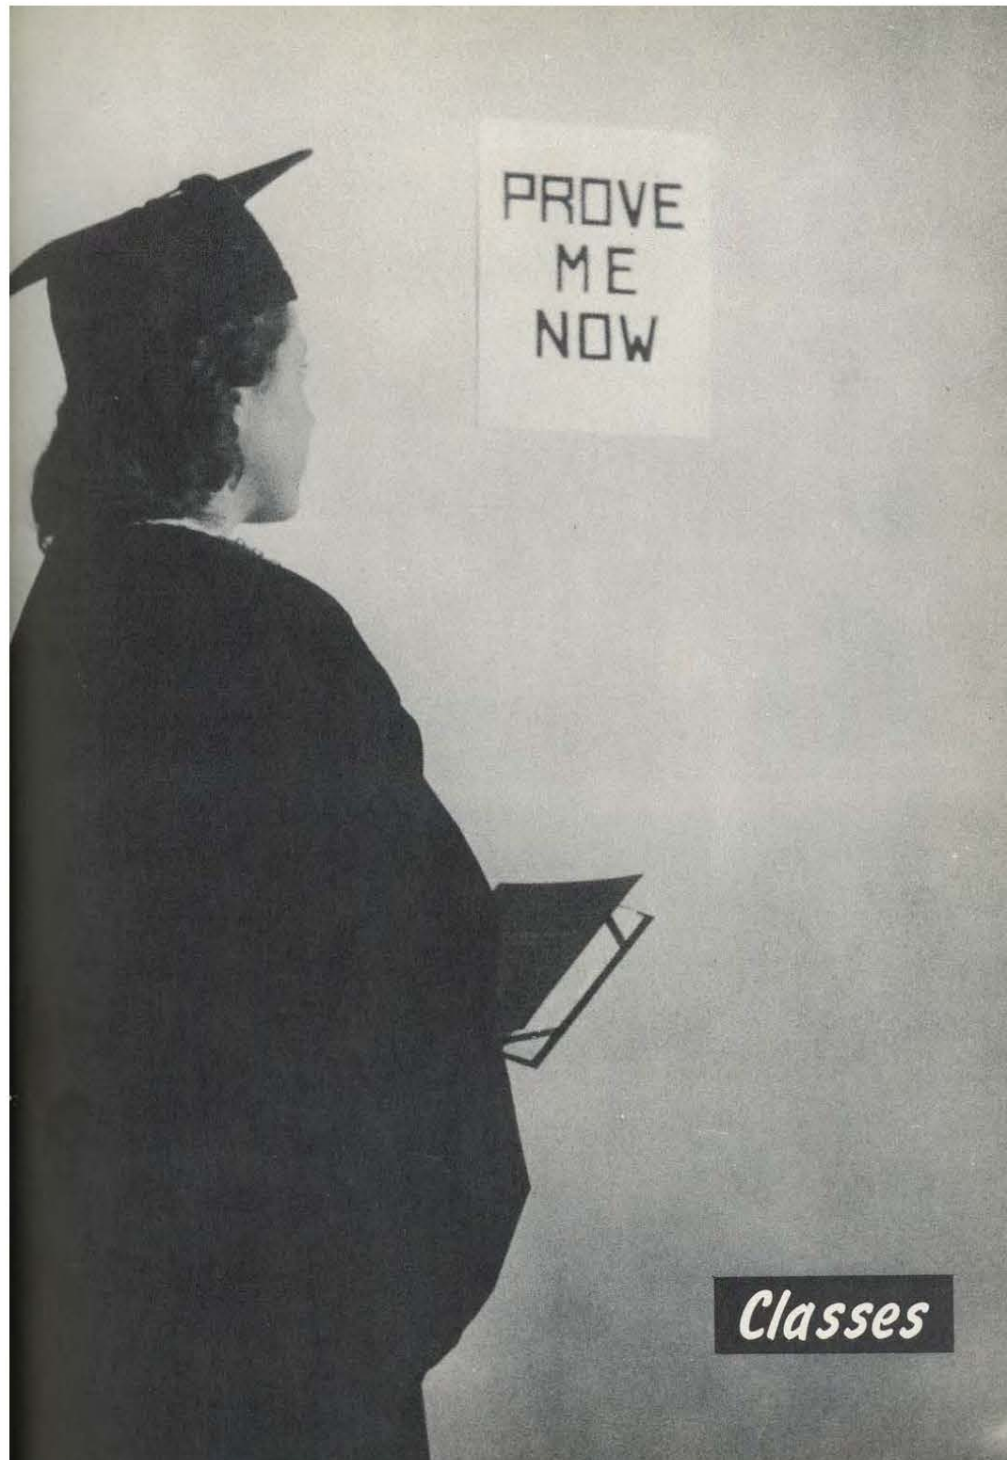

One of the prominent innovations of this school year which has signalized the spirit of advancement and the expansion of our sphere of influence is the addition of a Night School.

In answer to a real need the project was presented to the public. The response was gratifying—approximately sixty students were registered.

The first semester three courses were offered—Teacher Training, Personal Evangelism, and Romans Exegesis; the faculty, Mrs. Rutenber, Mr. Meyer, and Mr. Kenyon. On request two new courses were added the second semester—The Gospel of John and Poetical Books.

This opens a limitless field of opportunity to the Institute in extending its ministry to those who cannot in these crowded days avail themselves of day-school facilities.

Classes

ST. PAUL BIBLE INSTITUTE

Once we walked along life's pathway
Caring little for the lost,
Heeding not the words of Jesus,
Selfish—counting not the cost.
Then the patient Holy Spirit,
Never failing in His task
Quickened to our hearts the message,
Ye shall have, if ye shall ask.
Ye shall have a broader vision,
Power—as head and heart you bow;
Grace, that in your life, and service
You will claim God's "prove me now."
How the Lord has worked within us,
His sweet will to want and do,
Spirit filled and self-forsaken,
With Christ's message, ever new.
Truly God hath proven faithful
With such gifts to us endow
Thus prepared we stand before Him
Saying humbly, "Prove me now."

CLASS MOTTO: Prove Me Now

To answer the challenge of our own need and the need of a lost world, we entered this Institute. Our personal plans, our home fellowship, our little circle of service, these were not sufficient. The Lord was bidding us "stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations."

Classroom, prayer-closet, and unified fellowship have made more real the Lord Jehovah's invitation—"Prove Me Now"—in the riches of His grace and the power of His might.

We are conscious that our sufficiency is of the Lord as fields of service "white unto harvest" compel our attention. Our desire is a whole-hearted expression that God will "Prove Me Now."

THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The missionary spirit of the Saint Paul Bible Institute is kept stimulated and fresh by the weekly missionary fellowship. An inspiring service is planned for each Friday evening by the Missionary Society. The Society is under student administration, composed of president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary, and two curators. Thus the vision and need of missions is held before us by select guest speakers in this weekly challenge and as a result, many students have received their call and have gone forth around the world in Christian service.

Our student body is divided into seven prayer bands. These meet every Sunday afternoon to pray for their respective fields. Prayer meetings held each week day at noon prove to be times of real supplication in prayer.

The largest missionary pledge in the history of the school is an evidence of the growing missionary vision, of sharing by giving. Now we must continue to follow the instruction of the Master, "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you."

AFRICA

"Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, for they are white already to harvest." What field? The vast continent of Africa! Africa still remains in great need after 59 years of missionary enterprise. Do we hear the agonizing cry that still echoes deep in her jungles—"We want a teacher; why doesn't someone tell us?"

The missionaries of the past have given their lives to this great task; the missionaries of the present are faithfully carrying on; we face the challenge of the future in the statement of Rev. R. S. Roseberry, "We have come to the time of harvest in Africa and find that the reapers are too few."

The things we have fought for and prayed over are within our grasp, but we need more hands to lay hold of them."

Africa is now facing a new era of missionary enterprise—they are crying, "Come over and help us." What will you do?

SOUTH AMERICA

Buried in the heights of the mountains, hidden deep in the jungles and in the grassy plains, surrounded by black malarial marshes are millions of savages. This is the untouched heart of South America! These compose sixty-five percent of the population.

The highland Indian, numbering about five million, is the remnant of an ancient civilization. This group is intelligent and energetic. The Indian of the jungle has no permanent home, for he follows the hunt and is at constant warfare. These roaming people number in the tens of millions.

For the love of fame, wealth and science, men have exposed themselves to the dangers of South America. Can we do less for Christ? There are over three hundred untranslated tongues at our very door step. Can we, dare we, remain idle while they die without a witness?

SUSIE SCHMIDT

CHINA

Four million people, and only fifty workers! What are these among so many? To this handicap is added the internment of missionaries, the horror of war, soaring food prices, and the cry of starving millions.

Because the fields in occupied territories are now closed, prayer intercessors are needed to combat Satanic forces which are seeking the overthrow of past missionary labour. In spite of adverse conditions, the response to the gospel appeal is gratifying in refuge camps and among university students. The Chinese Christians are looking to the believers of America to uphold them in prayer. The field is white. The need is great. The time is short.

"And he saw there was no intercessor, and wondered that there was no intercessor."
Isa. 59:16

"I sought for a man among them. . . to stand in the gap. . . but I found none."
Ez. 22:30

Will you answer God's call for intercessors?

FRENCH INDO-CHINA

JENNETTA ELDRED
Convocation Speaker

According to all outward appearances, the French Indo China and East Thailand missionary program is facing the darkest and most crucial hour of its history. The majority of missionaries have returned to the home land, but some are in concentration camps in Mytuo, Cochin China. There is only one missionary couple free on the field to evangelize over 27,000,000 people embracing 150 tribes.

The interned missionaries are allowed to leave camp between 6 A. M. and 9 P. M. within certain limits of the city of Mytuo.

They are permitted to write letters of encouragement to the churches; carry on translation work; receive visitors; and are in better health than before internment. Christian natives are taking the new responsibilities of evangelization and care of the churches. Let us pray for their spiritual growth in this time of testing.

The previous missionary force was a little over seventy. This number must be increased to one hundred fifty to complete the work in French Indo China when the doors are reopened. This calls for our fervent prayer. Let us not fail God or them.

INDIA

INDIA—the very name brings a suggestion of confusion to the average mind. What are YOU thinking? castes, child widows, Mahatma Gandhi? The story is just starting—that's merely a beginning!

Political turmoil and perplexity that stagger the mind; religions that combine devilry and heathenish practices beyond comprehension; living conditions and lack of sanitation indescribably horrible; disease and malnutrition indefinable to medical science; mental darkness and spiritual rotteness that spell only one outcome—LOST!

Lost from the blessing of democracy? from the reasonable and logical worship of God? from the privilege of good homes and hospitals? Infinitely worse! Eternally lost from the presence of God! One fifth of the world's population lost for the want of Jesus Christ! LOST!

Are you aware of the fact that there is shocking paganistic darkness right at your own back door? In the very State of Minnesota Indian peoples are making sacrifices of dogs in an effort to atone for their sins. Nights of dark heathenish practice mark this annual orgy. Believing that the spirits of their departed loved ones return, they build little houses over their graves and place food on a shelf under the eaves for them to consume. The medicine man, similar to the African "witch doctor", gives them questionable cures for their pains.

Yes! Paganism blights the reputation of Christian America. Some have responded to the pitiable need and have gone out to seek these lost ones for Christ. Real pioneer spirit and costly privations have characterized their labours. Among 86,000 Indians within our North-western District, there are only thirty workers.

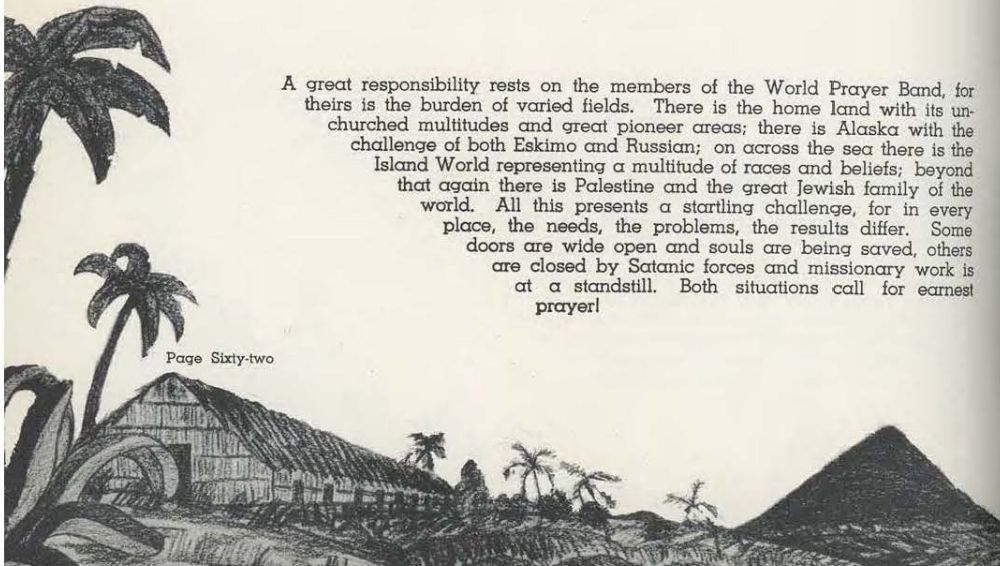

ALDEAN WEBER

WORLD

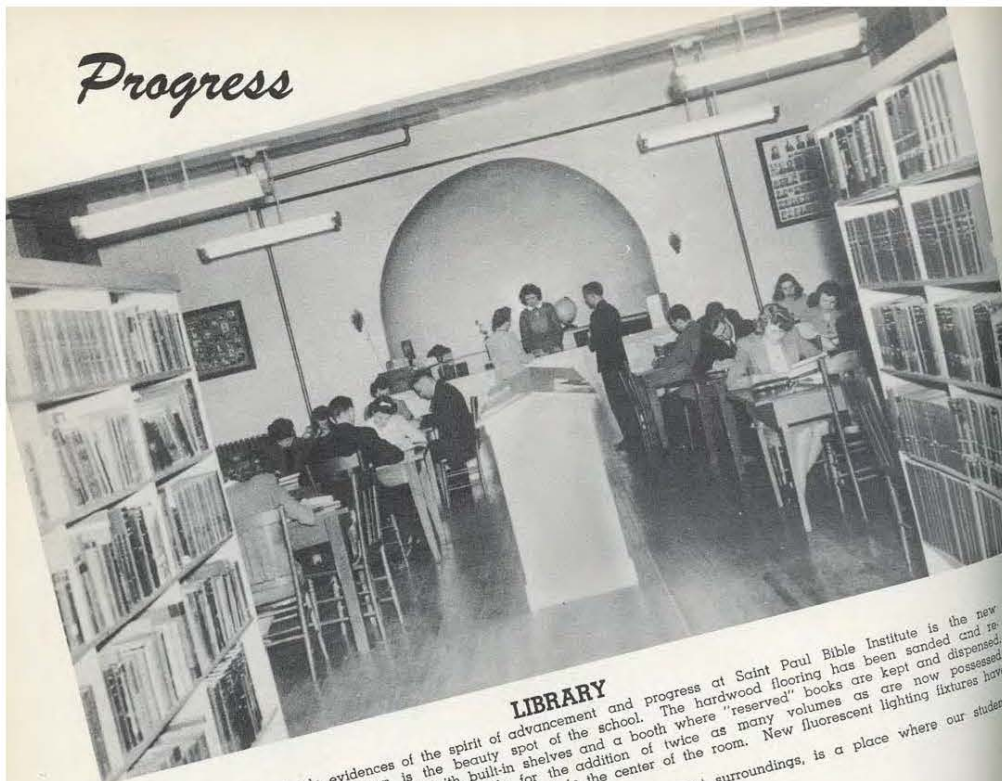

A great responsibility rests on the members of the World Prayer Band, for theirs is the burden of varied fields. There is the home land with its unchurched multitudes and great pioneer areas; there is Alaska with the challenge of both Eskimo and Russian; on across the sea there is the Island World representing a multitude of races and beliefs; beyond that again there is Palestine and the great Jewish family of the world. All this presents a startling challenge, for in every place, the needs, the problems, the results differ. Some doors are wide open and souls are being saved, others are closed by Satanic forces and missionary work is at a standstill. Both situations call for earnest prayer!

Progress

LIBRARY

One of the strongest visible evidences of the spirit of advancement and progress at Saint Paul Bible Institute is the new library. Entirely renovated this room is the beauty spot of the school. The hardwood flooring has been sanded and re-finished. The librarian has been provided with built-in shelves and a booth where "reserved" books are kept and dispensed. New stacks have been built and ample room made for the addition of twice as many volumes as are now possessed. A new magazine and reference bookshelf has been placed in the center of the room. New fluorescent lighting fixtures have been installed.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever." The new library, with its pleasant surroundings, is a place where our students may study the Eternal Word.

HAMMOND ORGAN

Under the supervision of Professor Theodore Bergman, head of our Department of Organ and Piano, the memorial organ has found its place in the spiritual ministry of the school and has opened and now offers the opportunity of training in the interpretation of church music which will be increasingly in demand. Our alert President-Dean with the assistance of alumni and friends has made it possible for us to secure this,—the latest fully equipped Hammond Electric Organ. The deluxe double speakers of the cathedral type amplify the music with the finest possible tonal effects. The organ has long been conceded the king among instruments. Human ingenuity has devised nothing which resembles more nearly the human voice than the vox humana and with the mighty and myriad shades of harmony and tone quality the organ speaks a language which the emotions understand.

Christian Service

Musical talent and speaking ability find their outlet through groups sent out by the Practical Work Department. These assignments give the students opportunity to minister the Word of God even during their days of preparation. This becomes a source not only of practical experience but of blessing as they see the power of the Gospel operate. The Tract Society supervises the distribution of tracts and meets regularly to pray for the Practical Work Assignments.

TALITHA CUMI

The Talitha Cumi, an organization among the girls, seeks to bring the Gospel to the many needy souls by going "into the highways and byways." On the street they present the need of a Saviour with testimony and tract; in rest homes and orphanages they present the joy of salvation with testimony and song.

FISHERS OF MEN

The "Fishers of Men" is an organization of men with a burning desire in their hearts to see other men won to the Lord. Our work is directed mostly to the men of the street through tract distribution and personal contacts. We assist in the various missions and churches of the Twin Cities. Hundreds of tracts have been distributed and many men have been led to the Lord.
