Though it seems I'm oft unnoticed,
And lost in time and space.
God above is watching o'er me,
Though I cannot see His face.

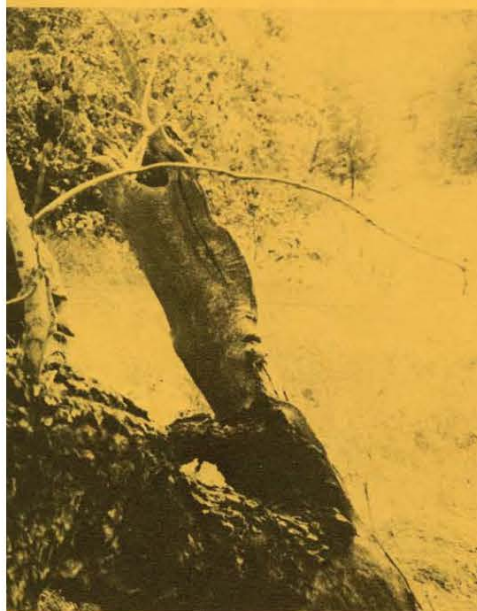

O how sweet to know He hears me
When I go to Him in prayer;

And I tell Him all my troubles
When my heart is bowed with care.

There's a great eternal purpose
In the life of everyone,
And some day we'll know its meaning
When our days on earth are done.

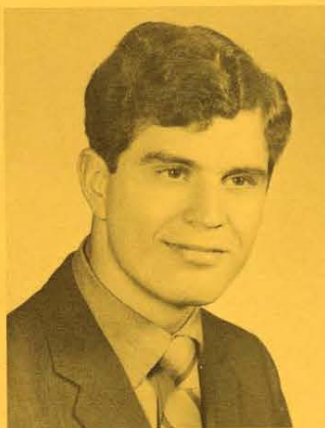

All my times are in His keeping,
He has numbered me my years;

IN DEDICATION:
John P. Mowery
Aug. 10, 1949-Aug., 1972

We can have peace because we know that Jesus Christ has all of our future laid out. I think very often we may be, afraid of death because we don't know exactly what's going to happen after we die, that's natural. But we really don't need to fear because we know that Christ is preparing a home, a place for us, where we can be with him.

—John Mowery

And some day He'll take me yonder
Where there'll be no pain or tears.

IN DEDICATION:
Dave N. Brown
Nov. 5, 1949-June, 1972

A Time To Die

Perhaps the moment after ecstasy;
after feeling the full, fierce force of life;
after knowing love, and while love is still warm . . .

Perhaps that is the time
for dying;
before everything and one
as turned sour;
before life is a burden;
before the thrill of waking
to a new day is gone;
before we long for death . . .

To die while bursting with life,
brimming with vitality;
longing to live . . .

Perhaps this is the time to die . . .
and live!!

—Darlene Bee, Ph.D.

Submitted by Joanne Brown.

So I face an unknown future
Full of faith and unafraid;
And the peace I have through trusting
For the world I would not trade.

Higher Hands are leading me,
Higher Hands are leading me;
I am not alone, I know,
As I walk this world below,
For Higher Hands are leading me.

Deeper Life . . .

A Time for Us to Listen

There are two weeks of this school year which many will long remember. As time was set aside for many to look at God, they also saw themselves. Topics such as "Divine Healing", "Discouragement", and "Biblical Smorgasborg" provoked positive change in many lives after the September Conference. A spirit of Christ's love was also evident in the February Conference as students joined hands with the faculty in singing "We are One in the Spirit." Rev. Valentine fit into Deeper Life Week with his humor as well. The whole chapel laughed when he described his wife's pranks in packing little hearts in his socks for Valentine's Day.

"Take my life and let it be . . ."

Rev. Paul Valentine of Stow, Ohio, reminds us that mountaintop experiences are not permanent.

Dr. Dahlquist draws response from the audience as he tells us about communication.

Student Lectureship

The second annual Student Senate Lectureship was held January 31-February 1, 1973. Speaking upon the topic "Personal Communication in an Impersonal Society" was Dr. Douglas Dahlquist. The four sessions; two in the evening and two in the morning were entitled: "Biblical Basis for Personal Communication," "Principles of Communication Essential for Dialogue" "The Ministry of Listening," and "A Christian View of Anger and Conflict." In dealing with these pertinent issues, Dr. Dahlquist drew upon his varied counseling experiences. The speaker pastored various churches from 1955-1970 and since then has been associated with Bethel Seminary as Assistant of Pastoral Care. Dr. Dahlquist was free after the sessions to discuss further with the students.

Students practice what has been preached as they "listen" to each other's views.

Homecoming '72...

"No Other Foundation"

Miss Deborah Lohonen found herself in the midst of applause as she was announced Homecoming Queen of 1972. Who will ever forget the comical moments when she just about lost her crown? As emceed by Bill Ronzheimer, the coronation and announcement of princesses was made after a tasty pork chop dinner. The entire setting was quite elegant, and fun, for all who attended.

Inauguration of the President

On Friday, November 10, 1972, St. Paul Bible College installed its new president, Francis W. Grubbs. Participating in the inaugural ceremonies were the Board of Trustees and the Faculty. The following organizations greeted the new president: the students, the Alumni, the Faculty, the Christain & Missionary Alliance, the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges, and the Association of Minnesota Colleges. Also attending were many official delegates from various colleges. The inaugural convocation was enriched by the music of the Girl's Choir and Choral Club.

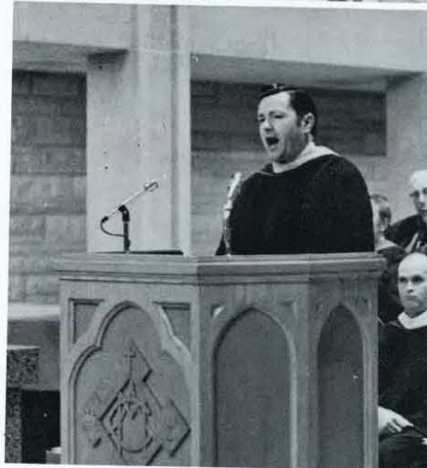

In his inaugural address, President Grubbs used the text Ps. 11:3, "If the foundations be destroyed, what shall the righteous do?" He stressed the fact that the educational foundations: the home, church, and Christain Education Institution must be upheld in these days. He asked that the students, Alumni, Faculty, and Constituency stand together in supporting St. Paul Bible College.

Following the convocation, a reception in honor of the new president and his wife, Mr. & Mrs. F.W. Grubbs, was given in the College dining room.

By 7:30
the chapel
was filled.

The theme of this year's Alumni Banquet was "No Other Foundation." A family style meal was served in the college dining room to the alumni and their guests, the seniors. The alumni present enjoyed the contemporary gospel sound of the Stumbo Brothers. Dick and Belva Flegel led a brief sharing time where several alumni were featured. Rev. Stanton Richardson was honored as "Alumnus of the Year." The new officers of the Alumni Foundation were then introduced to the guests at the banquet. Mr. Grubbs spoke upon the theme "No Other Foundation" including thoughts on the role the alumni should play at SPBC.

The students chosen represent the goals and ideas for which the college stands.

Christmas at SPBC

"Noel of Nations," the annual Christmas concert, was presented December 8th and 9th in the college chapel. Through costuming, narration, and music from the chorus, the chamber orchester, and small groups, different Christmas customs from other lands were portrayed. Rev. Thomas Burns spoke upon the subject "Noels". The program was climaxed by people representing foreign lands joining hands across the stage as the chorus joined their voices in the Hallelujah chorus from Handel's "Messiah".

Valentine Banquet

"The Greatest of These Is Love"

The Valentine's Banquet was planned by the Co-chairmen Dan Dainsburg and Marianne Brown. The theme for this year's banquet was, "The greatest of these is love". It was held at the Swiss Chalet in Minneapolis. Seventy-nine people enjoyed the music of the Traveler's quartet on February 12, 1972.

To A Friend

"There isn't anybody else
With whom I feel at ease,
With whom I chatter when I like,
Stay silent when I please
And so there isn't anyone
With whom I'd rather spend
My time, you see,
Because to me
You're such a precious friend."

-From program of the Banquet

"Douglas, didn't I tell you to keep the tickets in your wallet?"

Reverend Ralph Neighbor

"The Holy Spirit is at work in this world and He is at work all times of they day or night, He is at work in all places. . ."

Ralph W. Neighbor is pastor of the West Memorial Baptist Church in Houston, Texas. He has pastored several churches previously and authored three books, one among them being The Touch of the Spirit. His most recent ministry has focused on the development of an evangelical outreach. The TOUCH ministry (Transforming Others Under Christ's Hand) is not the formalized approach, but practices a life style which reaches all kinds of human need. Rev. Neighbor came to us to share his burden for full-reaching evangelism to reach all people. As a result of Neighbor's lectures, a "touch ministry" was started in Waconia. Students aided in cafe management while the manager was ill.

"... Unless somehow that person who walks in darkness sees the great light within us he will never be exposed to what Christ can do in his world."

Sharing Pastoral Lectureship With Our Neighbors

"The ministry does not have to wait until an appointed hour at an appointed place-the ministry should take place all the time, everywhere!"

Sybil listens intently as Rev. Neighbor speaks.

Voices of Missions

On Friday, February 23, 1973, St. Paul Bible College presented "Voices of Missions."

On World Missions night, Phyllis Russell presented the Voice of Accomplishment by way of a monologue. The Voices of Need were presented by Wanda Powell, Myron Heckman, and Rex Welsh. The last voice that was heard was the Voice of Challenge given by Neil Zobel, who was followed by Mr. Tom Burns and the call to commitment.

The Voices of Missions were accented by the special numbers of the choir and small groups.

Cultural Events

During the year various kinds of Cultural Events were held, such as the Baroque Concert, the ecology play, the Bard singers, C.E. Thomas, and the Sixth Day. These afforded the students the chance to be exposed to the varied modes of cultural expression. This year provided a good variety of Cultural events for the students and the community. The Cultural Committee consisted of Joyce Fifield, Debbie Anderson, Kermit Junkert, and Myron Heckman.

Campus Days Here Again

The Campus Days Committee planned a varied weekend for 450 high schoolers who visited the SPBC Campus. They worked hard to make April 13-15 worthwhile. Their efforts included complicated planning of activities to interest the conferees. Many more students came than were expected. The committee chose Bill McKee to be this year's speaker. Needs were realized and decisions were made as God spoke through Bill McKee. The students as well as the conferees benefited from this weekend.

Campus Cleanup

One day each fall and spring the student body is involved in Campus Clean-up Day. Each person is assigned to clean a certain area of the building or grounds. The faculty and staff are also included in supervision of the work. The purpose of this day is to save money for the school who would other wise have to hire professional help

Council

The C&MA General Council for 1973 was held in St. Paul, Minnesota at the St. Paul Civic Center. The week started with the Ford Philpot Crusade on Sunday, May 13. The Crusade continued mightily for the rest of the week and concluded on Sunday night, May 20. The Pre-Council Missionary Conference (May 14-16) and General Council (May 17-21) involved both present and former SPBC students. A typical day would begin with business meetings lasting until 4:00 when Rev. Sidlow Baxter spoke. Student participation from SPBC involved the choirs and the missionary candidates. The theme of Council was Operation Harvest. A strong emphasis was placed upon young people. Appealing to the youth was the "Love Sounds" concert on Friday night. Also, was the afternoon rally Saturday on the Capitol Steps. The climax of Council was the Sunday afternoon Missionary Rally where the need of missions was shown and the call for workers was given.

Graduation Activities

As commencement approached many events took place to help the graduates remember this event and their time at SPBC. The senior banquet honored the graduates and served as a time of fellowship. The senior retreat gave them a time of relaxation together before the big weekend. Then, finally the senior breakfast and baccalaureate honored the graduates and their families and gave them a time of worship as they neared the end of their years at SPBC.

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement exercises for the class of 1973 were held on Sunday, May 27, at 3:00 p.m. Sixty-two students received diplomas. Dr. John Mostert from the AABC spoke of several incidents in the life of Moses as he reminded the graduates of the future challenges they would face. Five seniors, Marilyn Arant, Dan Dainsburg, Martha Dresser, Deborah Lehenon, and Bill Ronzheimer received honor keys for their contributions to the social, academic, and spiritual aspects of school life.

Prayer Bands

The Prayer Bands meet once a week during the chapel period. They give the opportunity for the students to get together to support the missionaries and related needs in prayer. The prayer bands not only do this; they also let the students get acquainted with the countries, the missionaries, and those with whom the missionaries work.

Three Missionary Cabinets Serve Us

The missionary cabinet plans and directs the missionary meeting each Friday. But that is not the only responsibility they have. Missionary Cabinet is in charge of the Prayer Bands and early morning prayer. In order to organize the activities the cabinet meets twice each week—some times as many as three times. Mr. Conley is their faculty adviser.

Lance

The Lance is a student organized and operated newspaper whose main purpose is to inform the student body of various happenings in and around SPBC. Its issues are bi-monthly and usually run from eight to twelve pages a copy. Two people that worked very hard on Lance were Bob Roub and Bert Meyer who were the editors first and second semesters respectively. Many other students contributed to the Lance on a part time basis. Also, many contributed to the Lance in the form of poetry or a letter to the editor.

Student Senate Speaks

"...to promote and preserve the highest ideals of Christian collegiate life..." (1972 constitution). Is that all? No, any Student Senate rep will tell you that such a statement is only verified by "sweat and tears" (maybe blood?). One of the more practical achievements of the 1972-73 school year was the time change on Missionary Meeting—from Friday evening to Friday morning. Active on the Senate were the class representatives who met every Tuesday night at 6:00. to plan activities and discuss issues which affected student life. What was the result of their efforts? "This year has been trial and error, I feel. I think we've had a lot more for the students than in some years" (Bill Ronzheimer).

Floor Counselors and Resident Assistants

A floor counselor is a unique kind of SPBC student. This species must be given special recognition for the many functions they fulfill. Therefore we answer the question- What is a floor counselor?

-A floor counselor is one who angrily observes you creeping to your room two minutes after quiet time has started.

-A floor counselor is one on whose shoulder you cry (girls) when you're flunking music theory.

-A floor counselor is someone you throw in the shower.

-A floor counselor's room is used for prayer meetings and gab sessions.

-A floor counselor is one to whom you go to with questions and problems.

-A floor counselor is one who "lovingly" gives offenses.

-A floor counselor is one who "settles" student feuds.

Floor counselors come in all different shapes and sizes. Most of all, a floor counselor is a person.

The floor counselors listen as Chuck Ostle presents a Bible study.

The following are "old hands" at discussing perplexing issues of the dorms: LEFT TO RIGHT; FRONT ROW; Kathy Diavastes, Marty Dresser, Linda Napier, Jay Friberg, Marilyn Arant, Elaine Holmgren, and Jim Stumbo. BACK ROW; Steve Brenner, Terry Evaritt, Donna Voth, Rosemary Vaile, Roxy Swedberg, Paul VanCamp, Steve Powell, Anna Siktberg, and Dale Johnson.

The purpose of the dorm councils is to provide a legislative body representing the men's and women's dorms. Both conduct monthly all-dorm meetings to discuss problems within the dorm and attempt to close the communication gap between the deans and students. Also, they are responsible for planning social, cultural, and devotional activities for the benefit of the dorms.

Fishers of Men

Fishers is a group of students whose main purpose is not only to help each other grow in their Christian lives but to branch out to others. Their occasions for sharing usually take place Friday night. Their activities include witnessing at the U. of M. and on Nicollet Mall. They also do coffee house work. The group has grown closer to one another by reaching out to others.

Cosmolights

The Cosmolights are a group of students who are all Missionary kids. In fulfilling their C.S. requirements, they visit churches and occasionally they go to special meetings and retreats. Their purpose is to portray their life on the mission field. The Cosmolights share in music and testimonies. One highlight of their program is the slide presentation. This gives glimpses of each of their homes, schools, work of their parents, and the people of each country. Through this ministry the group has a chance to reach others with the needs of the mission field.

The Cosmolights are: Art Dickenson-Pres., Jon Davis-V.P., Cathi Crooks-Sec., Kathy Davis, Tim Wright, Paul Lay, Tim Undheim, Gwen Arnold, Lori Bubna, Randy Martin, Stan Martin.

Friendship

You have brought some beauty to my life you know or did you know?

that you have brought some beauty to my life.

I have not been blind to all the beauties of the earth, but most of all I'm blessed to call you friend.

We have shared a smile,
 a tear,
 and now i know which way to go for you have brought some beauty
 to my life.

God has touched my life
 in how you care for me,
 and now I see that God has brought this beauty to my life.— Sonny Salsbury

Chamber Orchestra

The Chamber Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Douglas Carey and Miss Lois Utzinger, provides a chance for students to participate in classical orchestration. Mr. Carey and Miss Utzinger donate their time once a week to practice with the orchestra. There are 27 members involved in the orchestra including two people not in attendance at SPBC. The orchestra has performed for various functions, including the Christmas Program and World Missions Night. They also provided background music for the Senior Banquet. They have played everything from Camelot to Concerto No. 5 (A Major) by Mozart.

The Orchestra provides music for the Senior Banquet.

The members are, Director Mr. Douglas Carey, Miss Utzinger, players are, Virginia Brown, Martha Dresser, James Eschenbrenner, Rebecca Barnes, Rebecca Helzer, Larry Anderson, Jon Vennerstrom, Marilyn Neufeld, Chris Te Winkel, Melody Dobelstein, Dennis Nelson, Karen Moravec, Kathy Morgan, Jean Hannam, Debra Jacobson, Avis Emmel, Roxanne Swedberg, Suellyn Glidden, Kermit Junkert, Debbie Anderson, Phil Leatherman, David Paul, Paul Losli, Graig McClun, Toni Merleno, Paul Barnes.

The Living Faith

"These five young people, traveling with President Grubbs, have gone out nearly every weekend to churches in Montana, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Nebraska, as well as Minnesota to represent SPBC and help present the Faith Foundation program. When asked what he thought the main purpose of the group was, apart from representing the school, Gary Vaile said it was that their music be a witness to those who heard them. This is evident by their willingness to sing for the Lord."

The Believers

The name "Believers" was chosen because they believe Jesus is "the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14:6). Their purpose, of course, is to share Jesus with others. When asked what he considered the purpose to be, Dale stated, "There are hundreds of young people within easy reach of us that need to hear the truth that Jesus loves them. Our basic purpose is to go beyond the conventional church ministry and get to these unsaved youth."

Girls Choir

This year the Girl's Choir has experienced a real sense of unity, even from the very first prayer meeting when we got acquainted. And it has been this unity that has made every activity a wonderful time of fun and fellowship. Our retreat, our tour through the Midwest, our Twin City concerts and our breakfast have all been underlined with a joint desire on the part of every girl to glorify and exalt Jesus Christ. Perhaps one of our songs seems to best express the feelings of the girls:

"Jesus, Jesus, Jesus

Let all heaven and earth proclaim,

Kings and kingdoms may all pass away

But there's something about that Name."

What made our year precious was the times spent in prayer. More than once fifteen minutes in prayer transformed twenty-five guys doing their own thing into one choir doing God's thing. In the power of the Holy Spirit guys sang, played their instruments and testified to God's glory alone. The biggest single factor was a generous help of God's grace and power. One of the members summed it up very well. "Praise the Lord. He gave us a good year."

Choral Club

This year afforded the Choral Club the opportunity to travel in parts of Montana, North and South Dakota, Iowa, and Minnesota. The members of the group also sensed the unique ministry that a choir can have.

From the opening number, "Praise to the Living God" to the final note of "God Has a Purpose", peoples' needs were met. Whether inspiration, commitment or salvation — whatever the need the members of the Choral Club sensed an ability by God's power to communicate through work and song.

Hey where did everyone go???????

The 1972-1973 Basketball season was an exciting challenge to both the team and their fans. The team started the season with the spirit to win, and to give 100%. One outstanding factor in the team's great work was the cooperation and teamwork of all the guys. Often in the season Coach Pierce used the reserves, which points out the good depth of the team this year. In the MRAC tournament this season the Crusaders placed fourth.

What's holding us up?

Here he is, our fearless leader.

"Oops, I dropped it."

A mad dash is made for the ball.

Girl's Basketball

The girl's basketball team was coached by Rick Porter. The girls worked hard and anxiously awaited each game. The unity and teamwork of the girls helped to give them the physical and moral support they needed. The girls showed a strong defense in their games this year. Although the season was a rough one, the girls displayed good sportsmanship and a desire to keep on fighting.

The Girls Behind The Guys

Our cheerleaders are the spirit - leaders behind our basket ball team. Faithfully they yell and support the team. Not only do they cheer, but the girls have a C.S. on Sundays. They go to different area churches to sing and give testimonies. Our spirit-leaders also get together for times of fun besides the hard hours of practice they put in. During this year the girls have worked hard and have grown to know and love each other. At the end of first semester, two of the cheerleaders left; so two new cheerleaders were chosen.

Second Semester: LEFT TO RIGHT, Barb Vandergon, Mary Jane Savage - Captain, Marty Dresser, Judy Gilpin, Janette Eipperle.

The cheerleaders favorite verses:

Romans 15:5-6

May God who gives patience, steadiness, and encouragement help you to live in complete harmony with each other — each with the attitude of Christ toward the other.

And then all of us can praise the Lord together with one voice, giving glory to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Hesser's Boys Wrestle

Dedication to the sport of Wrestling made the 1972-73 wrestling season a unique season. The wrestler's had to practice self-discipline in order to train themselves for the sport of wrestling. Not only did they discipline themselves in their training but often they had to discipline their eating in order to make weight. The guys were confident this season and provided thrilling matches to watch.

The 1972 soccer season was the first year of intercollegiate competition. Coming into this season the Crusaders were considered the underdog, but this didn't discourage the Crusaders. After a couple of heartbreaking losses, the Crusaders put it all together not only with a strong defense but also a fighting offense. The soccer team took second place in the intercollegiate competition with the warning that in 1973 the teams will have to work hard to beat S.P.B.C. Truly the soccer team had a great (!!) season.

STUDENTS AND FACULTY

Mr. William Conley
Chairman, Missions Department

Mr. Conley started to teach at St. Paul Bible College in 1961 on his return from Indonesia. As Department head some of Mr. Conley's duties are, planning the curriculum for the Missions Department, overseeing the planning and promoting the Missionary Conference. This year Mr. Conley said he has seen the influence of overseas missions working at St. Paul Bible College. For the future of the Missions Department he is working on the undergraduate courses at S.P.B.C. to meet the needs of those preparing for missionary service. The program was also to work in conjunction with the graduate Missionary School which the C&MA is starting.

Doctor John Gates
Chairman, Philosophy
Department

Doctor Gates started teaching at St. Paul Bible College in the fall of 1960. In 1963 he became the Chairman of the Philosophy Department. As head of the Department Dr. Gates directs and plans courses and makes suggestions to the Academic affairs committee. He also spends time counseling the philosophy majors. Dr. Gates has given his own philosophy of the Department in a nutshell: "Religion in its best sense and philosophy in its best sense are closely connected. In reality there are no secular subjects, including philosophy though for academic convenience we call it philosophy."

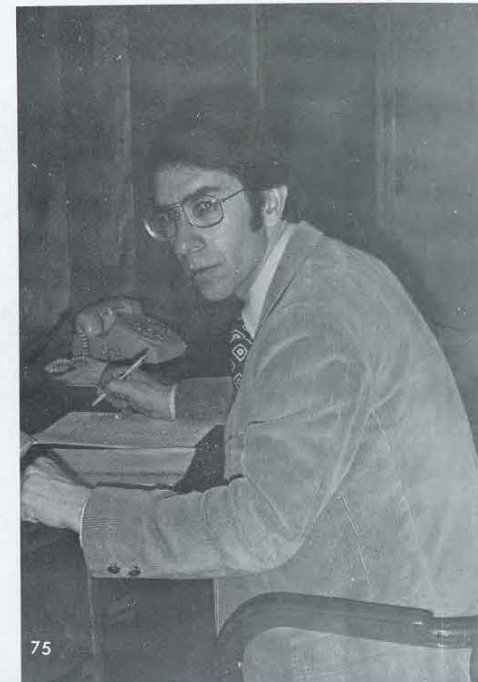

Mr. Joseph Tewinkel
Chairman, History Department

Mr. Tewinkel began teaching at SPBC in 1955 as a part-time teacher. In 1960, he assumed full-time responsibilities. Because of the increased interest in the late 50's and early 60's, the History Department was created, and Mr. Tewinkel was asked to be the head. Some of the duties as the head of the department are: serving on the Academic Affairs Committee, developing the curriculum in the most effective way for the students, advising the students, and choosing books for the library. The last two or three years has seen a period of transition, due to the planning of the C&MA graduate school. The exact plans are uncertain, but there will be some changes to meet the requirements of the C&MA graduate school.

Dr. Mason started teaching at SPBC in 1959. Since then, he has been involved in the Department of Bible & Theology. Dr. Mason's duties include the ordering of books for the library, screening the applicants for the Department, serving on the Academic Affairs Committee, being responsible for the planning of the Pastoral Lectureships and also the curriculum. One of the accomplishments of this year has been the acquirement of funds for the Pastoral Lectureships. For the future of the Department, they are working on making the Bible & Theology Department to fit the requirements of the new C&MA graduate school.

Dr. James Mason
Chairman, Bible & Theology

The Christian Educational Department, of which Dr. Donald Trouten is the head, aims to prepare men and women for the educational ministry in the church. It also prepares students for non-professional ends by giving them a basic understanding of educational processes.

Working closely with Dr. Trouten is Mrs. Marilyn Weldin who teaches most of the classes pertaining to this field.

Doctor Donald Trouten

Mrs. Brown started teaching at St. Paul Bible College in 1946. She became the Department head in 1957. Mrs. Brown is director of the Girls' Choir, as well as a teacher of voice and choir. Her duties also encompass the other choirs and musical functions. To say the least, she is a very busy lady on campus.

Mrs. Lucille Brown
Chairman, Music
Department.

Rev. Orrel Steinkamp, Alliance Missionary to South Vietnam, has been the resident missionary of the '72-'73 school year. After serving as instructor in the Nhatrang Bible Institute, he has come to SPBC with fresh experiences to share with Missions and Bible classes.

Dr. Trouten . . .

Serving in Several Roles

As Vice-President and Academic Dean of the College, Dr. Donald Trouten is involved in both administrative and student affairs. He often counsels with students in helping them to decide which academic routes they should take. He is also Chairman of the Christian Education Department. One of the college's most enjoyable classes is taught by Dr. Trouten—that is, Marriage and the Family. Many students find this instructional and useful. Dr. Trouten is also on the Board of Managers in New York for the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

Higher Hands Have Led Us . . .

- Where? Oh, to the soccer game, on the only day we could get pictures. To the right film shop, after we got lost in St. Paul. Even to St. Boni's baseball stadium, to get some senior candid.
- When? Sometimes when we didn't realize it. They were there, even when a deadline wasn't completed. And that's when we needed them.
- How? In the usual way that they lead anyone who is trusting them--sometimes directly, and sometimes not . . . like when the basketball tournament & Christmas Concert were taken on the same roll of film. But it all worked out.
- Why? Because He promised us. "I will never leave thee or forsake thee." . . . even when no one else cares if there's a '73 SHIELD, or at least you don't think they care.

Our acknowledgments must go first of all to those HIGHER HANDS, which guided each of us, as we let them. But, as editor, I am thankful for those who offered their services to be guided.

The photography committee is one which deserves my commendation. Despite my efforts to learn more about cameras, I must admit that there is no substitute for willing and dependable photographers. Elaine Erickson, photography editor, will agree with me there. Being that film development and printing involve more than a basic knowledge of chemistry, we are also grateful for Gerry Harris and his assistants.

Though Linda Napier is involved in more than one important activity, she and her artistic staff never failed to surprise us with unusual, yet balanced page designs. And copy was one area where the Higher Hands had to pull us through. Not we didn't have a committee, it's just that writing copy is no small job. Ask Shari Grubbs.

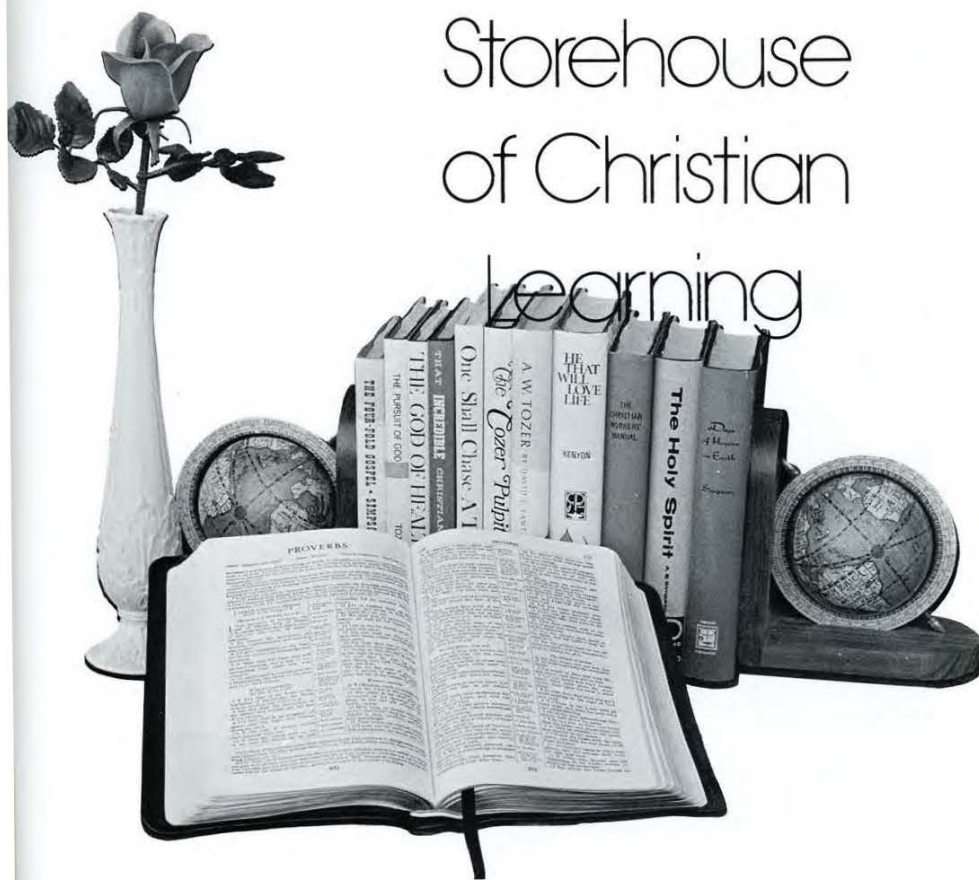

Then, of course, there were the ads. As much as the editor knew about business management and selling, we would have 'thunk' a long time ago. But with Vivian DeJoode and her smiling cohorts, we 'thwam,' at least to the place where we had enough ads.

At freshmen retreat in 1971, the motto was, "I will guide thee with mine eye." (Ps. 32:8). I have not forgotten that verse, and will always associate it with the Hands that have led us thus far.

The Great American Dream

Ice College-The way it's supposed to be:

Boop-boop-a-doop and 22 skidoo. Such was the empty substance of America's incredible fantasy about "the old college try". Surreal phrases which were once common currency have been dissolved by a total relevance trip. Life styles relating directly to our basic needs have taken over as tenable alternatives to social illusions.

Some businesses still talk to the illusion. And they project an illusion of their very own to do the talking. Imagine the plastic dialogue of a corporate bank tycoon offering Joe College the life of luxury through a prudent savings program. The Midway Bank is for real—no strange delusions about who you're supposed to be or what your banking needs are.

STUDENTBANK is a relevant alternative to today's bank myths.

STUDENTBANK is staffed by persons who understand your banking needs—no hassle, no red tape, just quick service.

STUDENTBANK offers FREE CHECKING—no service charges, no minimum balance requirement.

STUDENTBANK is the perfect place to cash large checks when you're in a hurry to travel.

So bike to the Midway National STUDENTBANK and tell us about your banking needs. It's really a good move.
