CROWN COLLEGE LIBRARY

Morning, noon, and evening, follow each other in rapid succession. How rapidly autumn becomes winter, and winter, spring! The year, whether it is the first or the last, passes by all too quickly.

Minutes and hours spent in sleep are rudely interrupted by the toll of the alarm clock. Some groggily; others alertly; all turn the bell off. Later in the day, however, the bells ring which set a pace that can't be stopped. That is, unless the bells fail to go off. Then, of course, there are clocks to fall back on. Only sometimes, the power goes out and then the clocks are out of commission. All of which makes life, and time spent at college, a little more interesting.

Classes come, with some students learning as they go; and others merely passing through. Notes are hastily scribbled to be studied for the next exam or perhaps, used in the future for teaching others. As grades come out; some students' faces show joy; while others show marks of indifference or disappointment.

Evenings are spent in many ways. Studying receives top priority by some; conversing or watching television by others; and ping-pong tournaments by still others. Each student gives some of his evening time to required school activities. This is done out of a variety of emotions. Frustration, eagerness, apathy--these are all seen in varying degrees on the faces of the students. This is natural, as there are deadlines to meet on papers, tests and projects. All teachers have requirements to be met and the students are here with a purpose. However, in the bustle of activities and assignments, with time pressing in; the students here, must not succumb to the routine of living. Instead, they should keep time, time to the Word of God, in Jesus Christ.

Dr. Francis W. Grubbs
PRESIDENT

Time waits for no man,
And you the class of 1975
have completed your moments,
days and years at St. Paul Bible College. There have been times of fun and fellowship; Times of life
building and Times of life planning.

Now that time is finished
and you move on to your God appointment.
Go now, but redeem your Time.

Match your God invested potential with your God granted opportunities, with the greatest efficiency possible. Then when you stand in the presence of Jesus Christ, and he calls for a reporting of your time--with joy you can respond,
My Times, O Lord, were in your hand!

I have invested my moments serving you, and they have now grown into eternity--for your glory!

F. Grubbs

christian service

Harbor Light Center

Christian Service is an opportunity for students to get off campus and share their faith. It is a time to learn leadership and time to learn to obey leadership. It is a time to go out and meet people from all walks of life and hear their philosophies of life. For most students it is an enriching experience where their faith deepens and they learn to share their faith in a concrete and matter-of-fact way.

The Student Senate is a group of interested and industrious students who, among many things, seek to better student-faculty relationships, encourage good rule changes by going through the proper channels, and encourage students to participate in Cultural Events. They sponsored such things as going to the Guthrie and a Rock-a-thon. Each student is elected by his classmates as a responsible representative of his or her class.

Last night I opened my eyes to catch only a glimpse of the past.
January walked by bringing back only one beautiful memory.

The park laid in a blanket of white Sprinkled with stars.. And while sitting on the bench not one sound was expelled from the air, except a soft
"I love you!"

The curtains fell and I heard a loud applause.
Looking around, I fearfully found myself
in a large crowd, but once again felt a security as a soft
"I love you," whispered in my ear.

Suddenly summer jumped into the air, and squishing my toes into the sand--splashing water up to my knees and the moon making a streak of light across the restless water, I once again saw myself--alone except
on a strong arm holding me tight
expressing a love,
words could never put forth.

Now look at the dancing flame. It's trying to tell me that it wants to be a part of my memories.

And look, here, at me. I want you to be part of all that's ahead for me,
Because, Lord Jesus,
"I Love You!"

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him,
and He shall direct thy paths."
Prov. 3:5,6

"And He has said to me, My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness! Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, that
the power of Christ may dwell in me.
Therefore, I am well content with weaknesses,
with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, with difficulties for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong."

II Cor. 12:9,10

Mike Wallman
*Bachelor of Arts
