SAINT PAUL BIBLE COLLEGE
BIBLE COLLEGE, MINNESOTA 55375

We, the Shield staff, have decided to make a few notes to help you remember this year. Feel free to add your own notes as you read.

This note book is dedicated to you, the people who have made this year what it is. It is not dedicated to who we were or who we will be, but rather to who we are right now.

This is our year.

These days are days given to us by our Lord. We receive each one fresh and new, just waiting to be molded, shaped and spent.
What we make of each day is what we give back to God, our gift to Him.

This annual is a record: a notebook kept to remind us of the people and events that fill each of these days.

The blank pages of our notebook
are the school: our dorms, chapel, lounges, classrooms.
These remain year after year, unchanged. And yet, each year here is vastly different from any other.

There is something special that sets this year apart from any that have gone before or will follow after.

Why is this year special?
What is different about our year? It must be us!

PEOPLE ....

We are the writing that fills
the blank pages of our notebook.
We make this year at SPBC uniquely our own, giving of ourselves to make our home here.

But what is it that we give to SPBC? What do we write on the blank pages?
How do we fill the empty spaces and the long hours?

We fill SPBC with life and purpose.
We are here, seeking God's will and direction in our lives, bursting with energy and excitement about what He has for us.

We add flavor and spice; imported from all over the globe.

We also add the love that makes SPBC so special, and the laughter that makes it so fun.

This notebook is a diary, a record of us:
Our singing and standing,
Our studying and sharing,
Our banquets and basketball games,
Our loving and learning,

Our friendships and fun times,
Our playing and praying,
Our classes and courting.

So this book is dedicated to us, the people that make SPBC the special place it is: the place where we spend this year- our home for a season. Each season, each year's notebook is composed of different people. It will never be the same again.

Choral Club

Dave Young.

The Choral Club performed all concerts acappella after their opening number with trumpet accompaniment. Of the nineteen concerts, six were presented in the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area, while the remaining thirteen made up the Spring Tour itinerary which ran from March 26 to April 6 and took the group through Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Illinois.

Although much of the time consisted of travel and the ministry of sacred concerts, Choral Club members also found time for volleyball, swimming, balancing alives on carrots, and the celebration of Brad Johnson's birthday party.

Women's Chorale

The 1979-1980 Women's Chorale, directed by Barbara Holmberg, consisted of thirty-one students from all four classes. Preparations for the Christmas concert took most of the fall semester. The chorale participated in the "Candlelight Carols" on December 14-15.

Efforts in the spring semester aimed for area concerts and tour. Tour this year included six performances in local churches, giving the women an opportunity for ministry while enjoying spring vacation.

Musicians At Work

Christmas Concert

Following tradition, the 1979 Christmas concert "Candlelight Carols," was held on two nights, December 14 and 15. The presentation combined efforts of five musical groups, including the Choral Club, directed by Leon Anderson; the Woodwind Ensemble, directed by Eric Brewster; the Women's Chorale, directed by Barbara Holmberg; the Chamber Orchestra, directed by Gail O'Neill; and the Symphonic Band, directed by Desi Klempay.

The evening began with the Brass Band playing Christmas carols in the lobby. The setting was purely festive as the musical groups sang and played songs of celebration honoring the Savior's birth.

Rev. Arnold Hustod delivers the narration.

Doug Trauren and Lis French help establish appropriate lighting for "Candlelight Carols."

The Women's Chorale and the Symphonic Band perform together in praise of the Lord's birth.

The Harpsichord

As well as the addition of a pipe organ, the music department also gained a harpsichord. Reverend Dennis J. Nelson donated the instrument which is valued at four thousand dollars. The harpsichord is the product of a kit, put together by Nelson in about a year's time. A graduate of SPBC, Reverend Nelson currently pastors the Oylen, Minnesota Alliance Church.

Christian Service

Opportunities for witness ... time to reach ... to nurture ... to extend Christ's Kingdom. Remember CEF class, Boys' Brigade, and "Heaven's Rainbow"?

Brent Wood, Director of Christian Service, reminded students that "lives are changed through C. S. Assignments." Some discover new directions for full-time life service; some find confirmation of God's call for ministry; some learn of needs that require new levels of commitment and consecration. And, for many, Christian Service meant the joy of leading a child or a teen or an older person to know Christ, and then careful preparation, nervous frustration, and planning and prayer all become more than worthwhile.

Under the Cross ... we sang, we played, we listened, we shared Good News ...

Who would have thought that so many people could live in one place and get along as well as we did?

We helped to shape each other.
Sometimes with purpose, sometimes unknowingly.

It seems strange to see each other change so much in one year.

But the changes are good. They show how we are growing and learning to be all that God intended us to be.

Standing: Coach Janis Runka, Carl Crooks, Ken Crooks, Rosita Roman, Steve Nehlsen, Scott Toenges, Ed Long, Jeff Garland, Paul Eckdahl, Kris Mosher, Scott Storum, Chris Weigel, Rich Ludwigson, Yong Choi. Seated: Mark Petrie, Randy Wiley.

They sacrifice the last two weeks of their summer to come back to school early to begin training for the upcoming soccer season. They go through intensive three-a-day practices. They sweat together and hurt together, and in the end it all becomes worthwhile.

This year's soccer season started with an unexpected last-minute trip to Nyack College. There the season began with the first two games ever between SPBC and Nyack. The games were played hard by both teams and in the end were SPBC victories. These two games set the tone for the season ahead.

It was a good season overall, but there were times of disappointment. These times of disappointment brought the team together. They were followed by a regrouping of our forces and a uniting of ourselves to go on and keep plugging away.

Coach Janis Runka was a big factor during these times. He encouraged us to reach down within ourselves and keep going even though it was hard. The good times outweighed the bad, and they made the season enjoyable. Getting to know the other team members, playing together, sharing with each other and practicing every day, all brought us closer together.

This year was one of the best ever. We finished with a good record and were invited to play in the district tournament at Trinity College in Deerfield, Illinois. For the second year in a row, our second round foe was the home team, Trinity College. And for the second year in a well-played, close game we ended our season with a one goal loss to Trinity. It was the last disappointment, but it was also a chance to grow and we all benefited from it.

Cross Country

Have you ever wondered what drives a group of people to participate in a sport that requires a lot of work and gives little recognition to those who take part? Well, running is like fishing. If you've ever done much fishing, you have to admit, most of the time you don't do very well. But that doesn't mean that you refuse to go again because every now and then you do take home a fine stringer of fish, and this just seems to whet your appetite for more.

In running, the time when you ask yourself why you persist in enduring the extremes of weather and/or sore legs and an aching side for the "fun" of it are very common. Then you have a day where you notice something new in the beauty of nature as you are running, or maybe your whole body functions together and you barely even notice the miles slipping away beneath strong, steady strides. You get so that if you don't run for a couple of days you catch yourself restlessly daydreaming about running. This is what urges us on.

The highlights of our cross-country season were our overnight trip to Omaha, Nebraska, and our trip up north to Duluth, where we competed with St. Scholastica. Our two teams were evenly matched man-for-man and SPBC came away with a 1-point team victory in the race, which was held just one sand dune away from the beaches of Lake Superior.

We realized that we didn't have an overabundance of talent like most of our opponents seemed to have this season, so we set out to improve ourselves and enjoy our fellowship with others while we worked on attaining individual goals. In running, as in any other thing you do in life, once you've decided to set yourself to the task, you want to do it to the best of your ability, looking forward to one day hearing the voice of our Lord assuring us "Well done ...."

Men's Basketball

"Disappointing yet maturing, and then again a lot of enjoyment." I suppose that such is not the most eloquent way to describe our basketball season; but that's the way it was, at least from my perspective as captain of the team.

The season was certainly disappointing in terms of record. We all felt we had a good team. We had that balance of experience and really good talent. I think most of us felt inside that we would win the conference championship. But we didn't. We were good, yet somehow we didn't always click. Yet, according to our philosophy, winning is much more than a physical concept. Time and again we received comments concerning the "Christ-like" attitude our players exemplified. In that sense we were certainly winners I think.

Admittedly, this season was one of conflicting opinion. Not everyone can start. All suggested offenses or defenses cannot be used. It's hard for coaches and players alike to see where they might be wrong. Yet, I saw our team grow tremendously through this adversity. I'll never forget a couple of the prayer meetings we had during team devotions. I'll never forget the intimate sharing of ourselves that several of us had because of the adversity we faced. (Basketball players are supposed to be tough you know!) And so in the maturing sense. I think we were winners as well; and isn't Christian growth what it is really all about?

I guess this brief summary isn't filled with usual statistics. They are great to look at, but maybe not so important. We remember the wins, the singing lay-ups, the Nyack tournament, the locker parties and late night jokes, and the friendships developed which are perhaps unique to a Christian athletic team. But most of all we remember the growth. And so I pay tribute to this year's team — especially to "Doc" with whom, as a fellow senior and equally terrific ball player (a.k.a., "better ball player") I've shared four great years. To Larry "Buller", Tommy "Fresno", "Mirchy", Guy "Geneva", "Barney", Scott, David "Rag Doll", Kevin "C'mon Now", "Doctor", and brother Steve, thanks for making basketball one of the most enjoyable experiences of my college years. Of all the basketball teams for which I've played, this has certainly been one of them. (T.M.)

Cheerleaders

Kneeling: Kim Ranzheimer, Joyce Mangold, Lydia Abel, Debbie Delos, Kathy Sanders.

I guess my summary of our year as cheerleaders would be good. I learned a lot about myself and I learned a lot about the four other girls I cheered with. It was a growing year for all of us, in that times were not always good and it took depending on the Lord to work out our problems. All in all I think we appreciate each other more and will always remember many good times spent together as cheerleaders. D.D.

Women's Basketball

Sitting: Tracy Parrish, Velda Wipf, Helen Gibbons, Betty Weiss, Peggy Dennett, Wendy Witsrock, Donna Voegele, June Lewis, Deb Gerboth, Debbie Conklin, Mgr. Barb Smith, Coach Steve Powell.

There were many new faces in women's basketball this year, including that of a new coach. Our team was a young team, and we lacked much in height. But with the excellent work of Coach Powell we really improved much throughout the season. Though we lost the majority of our games scorewise, we won many of them within our hearts; a victory that comes by playing for the glory of Jesus Christ. That is what really counts! It was much hard work, but it was a fun year and well worth it. Best of all, it was a year of growing, learning, and fellowship for everyone.

Women's Volleyball

Volleyball Team, From Back Row: Lynnette Kyle, Deb Gerboth, RoeJean Rydberg, Jill Stewart, Candy Rice, Debbie Conklin, Lydia Abel, Cynthia Runyan, Coach Janis Runko.

It was a good building year for volleyball. Only two of the starters returned from last year. Therefore, most of the team had to learn new techniques and strategies, to which they responded admirably. In most matches our team members were at a height disadvantage, but they played up to their potential in floor position and quickness. Opponents out-played them on only two or three matches.

The women used the abilities and talents God had given them to play for His Glory. It wasn't always for a win, but the attitude of always doing their best to achieve the most for the Glory of God made the season worth while. But winning is still more fun than losing. Next year we will have more FUN! (J.R.)

Men's Baseball

The men's baseball team finished the year with a 6-2 conference record and 7-7 overall. The success the team experienced resulted from a team effort by all fourteen members. A good team spirit began with the first practices and carried through to the last game. Although practices began in February, a willingness to sacrifice and to work hard proved characteristic of the team as they carried out their desire to perform to the glory of Christ. This drive for a "praise performance" highlighted the season.

Women's Softball

With only three players returning to the team from last year, the SPDC Women's Softball team might not have expected to do well. But with experience of Debbie Conklin (named Most Valuable Player), the pitching record of Sharon Koetzel (2-5), and united team effort, they scored a record of seven wins and eight losses.

Coach Steve Powell and Manager Dave Marrox worked with team members Peggy Bennett, Debbie Conklin, Cindy Harris, Sharon Koetzel, Vicki Larrabee, Sue Podoll, Mariane Popchack, Cythia Runyan, Kathie Sanders, Janette Snell, Birdena Wilson, and Wendy Wittrock. The women played fast pitch, or seveninning games, five of which were double headers, making for long hours.

Senior Peggy Bennett summarized the team's season like this: "The season went fast. The teams we played were at all different levels of skill, but we chalked up half our games as victories. In each game we learned something, not only about the game of softball, but about ourselves and God."

Cindy "Tooth" stands ready at third.

Intramurals

Taking advantage of what Tim Miller called "a good opportunity to get to know each other and to get involved in something," co-eds, married students, and a few courageous faculty-staff members, entered intramural competition in pool, ping-pong, basketball, bowling, softball and volleyball.

Events were held in the evenings, three or four times each week during the second semester, and on Saturdays with "superstars" competition rounding off each series of events.

Deeper Life

Although "deeper life" doesn't depend on Dave Breese (fall) or on Ralph and Lou Sutera (spring), and although we were reminded that "we must not be presumptuous and assume that the moving of the Lord will be automatic," many testified that the scheduled meetings of spiritual emphasis became occasions when God's Spirit prompted us to confess sin, to experience personal revival, and to allow Christ to take precedence in relationships.

Learning to get along with each other can be fun. It can also mean hard work when you would rather be doing something else.

Or giving part of yourself and getting nothing in return; except the satisfaction of doing your part to help others.

Learning can also be a growing experience through the classroom. Taking notes and being taught;

or on the other hand, doing the teaching and in that way learning something of value.

Learning can be a unique experience; pleasurable or painful.

But it is what we are here for and it is through this medium that we mature . . .

... to be useful to God and others, sharing the things we have learned. The pages of our life being passed on to others.

Dr. Francis Grubbs, President, 1972-1980

"I think I will make that last retreat in a midnight hour so I can stroll leisurely hand-in-hand with memories. I see the row of faces - past presidents, and it seems I read something more in their eyes than I have noticed before."

I see the globe and that familiar motto, "Unto all the World." Dear God, may it always be the purpose of this College. As shadows race away like fading memories, voice one prayer. Oh Father, from these fleeting moment-years, let some result remain. May my shadow passing have touched some life, like Peter's passing shadow." Thus President Grubbs reminisced about his eight-year presidential term which culminated in the "Miracle Campus pay-off" in sight and the official announcement of full accreditation for the college by the North Central Association.
