"I Will Dwell in the House of the Lord Forever"

Nanette Phebus accepted the Lord as her Saviour in 1978 and enrolled at St. Paul Bible College that fall where she pursued a major in Christian Education.

She spent her first summer as a student at Camp Forest Springs managing their craft shop. She enjoyed teaching crochet. Her next summer was spent in Japan with the Scrum Dendo team, Language Institute for Evangelism. She liked the Japanese culture and hoped on returning. In the summer of '82 she completed her Christian Education internship at Waconia Alliance Church and became the superintendent of the Sunday school programs there in the fall.

Nanette completed the requirements for a bachelor's in Christian Education and had several classes left to complete her minor in Christian counseling when on August 11, 1983 she went to be with the Lord. She would have graduated summa cum laude.

It was Nanette's love for the outdoors, her enjoyment of education and being intellectually challenged, and her philosophy of life, which included a ministry for the disabled, that characterized her as being a truly special people pleasing person.

A Witness for the Lord

Connie Grandy enrolled in St. Paul Bible College in the fall of 1980 with the intentions of becoming a missionary nurse.

It was just four years ago that Connie found out that she had cancer. The doctors believed she would have to lose a leg to cancer but only the hip ball, twelve inches of bone, and the tumor were removed and replaced with stainless steel parts.

Chemotherapy, interferon, and radiation treatments were a part of Connie's life, but the last few months of her life she decided against any kind of treatments.

"Connie believed that it was the Lord's will for her illness and that something good would come out of it," said SPBC student Terri Grandy, niece of Connie.

According to her brother, Dave Grandy, SPBC's building and grounds superintendent, Connie had used her illness to be a witness for the Lord. "If this is how He wants to use her -- she's given her life to Him. . . It's really precious how the Lord has given her the ability to cope with it." He also added that Connie has used conversations about her condition to point non-Christians to the cross.

On January 5, 1984, Connie went home to be with the Lord she had given her life to.

"Connie was an inspiration to all who knew her. Through her actions she taught me not to let life get you down; take what you have, keep on going. Use your talents for the Lord and don't let them go to waste," reflected Terri Grandy.

The 1984 Shield is dedicated to these people .

On November 26, 1983, Todd and Tammy Burke became the proud parents of Josiah Justin. Tammy is a former student of SPBC and Todd is a senior in the Elementary Education department.

Crusaders Emerge As National Champs In Florida

Win conference, shoot for Florida, and win Nationals were the physical goals of the 1983 Crusader Soccer team and all were met.

Winning the soccer championship was not easy according to Coach Janis Runka. "We had to earn the win and play some good soccer. It was not given to us."

Inwardly the team wanted to do their best for the Lord with the abilities He had given them. "Our main intent was to glorify God through our actions and plays."

Although the team lost their first two exhibition games against the University of Minnesota and the University of Wisconsin they did not give up doing their best for the Lord for they ended up with a 17-2-1 record and won the National Championships in Florida.

Letting Christ Shine Through Us

Do all things to the glory of God was the theme of the 1983-84 volleyball team with a 20-5 season.

This proved to be true when they were up against the team's biggest opponent, Northwestern. "It was a hard fought, well played match with exciting, tense moments. We did not win but the girls showed a great deal of character," said Coach Janis Runka on the match.

Team captain Candace Moats said, "After the game two of the girls from Northwestern came up to me and said 'Your team sure is an example of Praise Performance, we can really see God in everyone.' Even though we lost that game according to the score we were winners because we accomplished our real goal of letting Christ shine through us!"

"There were no hard feelings with who opened and who started. The team got along well with each other. They communicated with each other and there was good cohesiveness amongst them," stated Coach Runka. "It is not that they wanted to win so much," he continued, "they wanted to do good, to play to their potential with the talents they have."

1983 N.I.C.C. Champions

The cross country team wore new uniforms this fall - bright gold, white and purple - and ran to a mark of 9 wins and 11 losses, with an 8 and 0 record in the conference. The high point of the season was winning the NICC tournament at Ellendale, ND. A good spirit of Christian fellowship was enjoyed by competitors at the conference meet and throughout the season among team members who used their running ability to honor Christ.

The Crusaders participated in meets or road races every Saturday through September and October. Competition in the Twin Cities area was demanding. Todd Burke, the team's number one runner, completed his senior year running the fastest time on the home course by a SPBC runner since 1978 — 28:52 over 5 miles of difficult, hilly terrain around the campus.

The team raised enough money in the Athletic Department's annual "Jog-a-thon" to mark the course next year with new flags and finishing shute — thus welcoming new and returning runners to SPBC.

Team Of Intensity

The 1983-84 Crusader Men's Basketball team, under the direction of coaches Bud Pierce and Joe Tewinkel, began the season with a good start by playing their first conference games at Faith Baptist Bible College against Faith, Trinity Bible Institute and Ozark and emerging as champions. One player felt the key to the win at Faith was due to the devotional time before the game.

"Intensity and desire" is how Hal Havisto described the young team this year. Nobody had played for more than two years in the S.P.B.C. basketball system. The only three in their second year were Hal Havisto, Dave Rouse, and Mark Klempel.

Over-all the team did very well for being so young. They ended up with an 11-17 record, a 4-5 N.I.C.C. Conference record, and were in a three-way tie for second place at the Annual All-Alliance Tournament at Toccoa Falls College, Toccoa Falls, GA.

Women Take NICC Championship For The Third Consecutive Year

Praise Performance was the primary goal for the 1983-84 Crusader Women's Basketball team. This years team was considerably young because over half the team was composed of freshman but they played as a unit and had good defense.

Coach Don Hardy commented on the young team quite positively saying, "We have the potential to be as good as or better than last years team." And that they did taking their third title in a row in the Northern Intercollegiate Christian Conference Championship defeating North Central Bible College 58-48. The team represented the N.I.C.C. at the National Tournament at North Central Bible College where they received a first place also.

Ending the season with a 14-9 record, 7-1 conference record, and having two team members Ruth Claasen and Candace Moats named to the N.B.C.A.A. All-American basketball team brought the season to a close as they accomplished their main goal for a Praise Performance year.

Intramurals, A Time For Fun

If flag football, basketball, pillow polo, chess, ping-pong, pool, or volleyball is your bag, then you probably were involved in the S.P.B.C. intramural sports program headed by Ed Rogers, Scott Schmidt and Bob Charles.

Flag football was played every Monday thru Thursday at 4pm and 6pm. After a long tough season, Steve Clason's and Colleen McGinnis' teams emerged victorious.

In November, 17 teams divided into two leagues to begin the intramural volleyball season. The red league was for those who wished to play mainly for fun and fellowship, the blue league was for the more competitive and collegiate rules were followed. In the blue league finals, Dave Gilmore's team won by beating Brenda's team 15-8.

In a close game of 23-22 Sue Wallace's basketball team defeated Sue Beran's team in a suspense filled game. In the final standings the off-campus men's team finished undefeated at 10-0 and Bob Charles team finished in Div. I with a 10-0 record. (The only loss was a forfeit).

Cheering For The Team

Early morning or late afternoon five SPBC women would devote part of their day to jumping, kicking, and different movements filled with pep, vitality, and spirit to produce the 1983 basketball cheerleading squad.

Together the members of the team developed a Praise Performance that came through loud and clear with each cheer they gave.

Shield Staff

Continuously working with cropping pictures, designing layouts, copy writing busy fingers, and tired brains the shield staff once again produces an annual for the 1983-84 year.

The year started out with staff pasteup but changed to company paste-up to help streamline and produce a better yearbook.

Reuben Unseth was the editor in chief first semester with Ross Halbersma Marketing Manage filling his place second semester. Other dedicated member were Loretta Ployhar as managing editor, Sheri Patterson layout editor, Dave Tiezen photographic editor, and Sonya Gerdeen as assistant layout editor, with Beth Weed as copy editor.

Together the staff tried to put together the best yearbook ever.

Lance Staff

The Lance Staff is a very committed group of students. They work hard on getting news out about whats happening on campus. They've had a lot of interesting articles out, and some very contraversial articles also. But as a whole the Lance staff put out a very good group of news papers all year long.

Missionary Cabinet

To present a realistic view of the joys and challenges of a missionaries' life, was the purpose of the fall, 1983 missionary cabinet, according to president Jonathan Wiggins. Other who helped him carry out this goal were: Doreen Dunn, vice-president, Duane Parker, secretary, Darla Swartley, treasurer, Judy Nehlsen, corresponding secretary, and Dave Dunn, financial secretary. They accomplished this goal through speakers, skits and special presentations every Thursday morning in chapel.

In the spring of 1984, a new missionary cabinet took over. Its members were Paul Geer, Candace Moats, Nate King, Bruce Brunberg, Shari Henrikson, and Patti Miller. Both of the missionary cabinets worked with Fred Polding, chairman of the missiology department and Jim Medin, Missionary in residence. Together, this group of people brought the world's missions and missionaries closer to heart and home.

Concert Choir

Concert choir is a group of very special individuals. They meet four days a week. First semester they worked on music for Campus Days and for Candle Light Carols, and prepared some music for tour in the spring.

By the time second semester rolled around they were a very busy bunch. Getting ready for Spring tour took a lot of work.

Over spring break, concert choir went on tour to Texas. They had a concert every night and sometimes both morning and evening concerts. As most students expressed it was an exciting tour and everyone really got along well.

Concert choir is a very special group of students who have a ministry of witnessing to people through music.

Symphonic Band

Symphonic band hit all the right notes this year. They not only had a Christmas tour, but spring time blossomed a tour also. At Candle Light Carols they tantalized faculty, staff, students, and community members with such delightful tunes as Sleigh Ride, Christmas Festival and other selections. They saw many standing ovations. Finally they capped the year off with a star studded local tour.

Campus Cleanup What A Mess!

Campus cleanup is a time when the whole school gets together to cleanup the school grounds. It's an enjoyable time where everyone gets together for fun, food (cookies) and work.

Last spring was the first time there has been a campus cleanup with blue skies and sunshine. Everyone seemed to enjoy the time together. There was that feeling of spring time in the air, which gives everyone a fresh outlook and willingness to work.

The day usually starts off with a time of prayer, singing and sometimes crazy games, like Rick Porter's favorite pew racing game. A tradition was broken last spring by not singing "Work For the Night is Coming," which didn't get too many complaints from students. All in all campus cleanup is an enjoyable time for most people.

Homecoming Lights Up Campus

Homecoming 1983 began the week of November 14th. To start spirit week Monday was labeled as hat and button day. Tuesday continued the week with clash day. On Wednesday the students were dressed in their favorite international costume, and Thursday was jeans day followed by dress-up day on Friday. On Saturday, to go along with the basketball game against Grace College, was purple and gold day.

The most significant event of homecoming week was the banquet on Thursday evening. "Skyline Terrace" signified an evening in San Francisco. Dinner was served at 6:30 p.m. in the cafeteria followed by a concert by Londa Lundstrom. After the concert the crowning of the 1983 homecoming King and Queen, Bob Charles and Amy Ilgenfritz, completed the evening.

To add to the week the alumni committee held activities for the visiting alumni. These activities included a special service in the chapel with a performance by the Symphonic band, an annual business meeting, a luncheon with the seniors, and the All Alumni basketball game against the Junior Varsity who were victorious for the first time in two years.

"Coffee, tea, or milk?," questioned the S.P.B.C. faculty who served the students at the Annual Christmas Banquet.

Patty Fine and the 'Not-So-Fine' players entertained us with a stunning performance featuring Laurel (Dave Grandy) and Hardy (Dave MacDonald).

The cafeteria was decorated with beautiful green and red for the Christmas holiday. The evening was enjoyed by all.

1984 Winter Olympics

Snow Days at SPBC took on a new form this year. The Senior Class "1984 Winter Olympics" theme was somewhat washed out by the snow melting weather the week of February 13-17. However, many of SPBC's Wide World of Winter Sports events were still held in spite of the slush, mud, and mess.

All of the events centered around winter sports and the Winter Olympics. The winners of our events were as follows: Tug of War - Freshmen and Seniors; Women's Volleyball - 1st: Seniors, 2nd: Freshmen, 3rd: Sophomores, 4th: Juniors; Men's (modified) Speedball - 1st: Seniors, 2nd: Juniors, 3rd: Sophomores, 4th: Freshmen; Figure Skating (a brand new event in which the participants were unable to wear ice skates because of the slush) Singles: Tim Miller (SR), Doubles: Buffy Focks and Lori Haars (SR's); Baking Contest (overall) - 1st: Seniors, 2nd: Sophomores, 3rd: Freshmen, 4th: Juniors; Skits - 1st: Seniors, 2nd: Freshmen, 3rd: Sophomores, 4th: Juniors; and finally, Snow Sculptures - 1st: Freshmen, 2nd: Juniors.

Overall points found the senior class in first place, the freshmen in second, the juniors in third, and the sophomores in fourth. Although much of the fun was affected by the warm weather (that's a switch, isn't it?), the week was a unifying time for each class and a time of true fellowship.

Alliance Youth Corps

Every summer, AYC, Alliance Youth Corps sends youth to different countries around the world.

A few of the countries that students from SPBC were placed were the Phillipians, Ecuador, Canada, Guam, Israel, and Thailand. There were over twenty students from SPBC involved with this summers ministry.

AYC isn't ministrying with preaching alone, it involves working, building, planning, helping, and caring, for others. The participants of AYC spread the evidence and witness about Christ. This program lasts part of the summer. AYC gives youth a chance to see a glimpse of a missionary's life and their life styles. Through AYC, youth are able to relate to "life on the mission field." AYC not only helps those living in the other countries, but it helps youth make decisions about following God's desire for their lives.

A Time For Spiritual Strengthening

St. Paul Bible College was challenged by Rev. Tom Allen during Deeper Life Week in the fall of 1983. Throughout the week, Rev. Allen based his messages on the central theme of a life full for Christ. He stressed a life broken of its own self effort and fully in tune to be used by God. These themes were developed in his messages on pride, wealth and sexual suicide. His closing message tied all the ends together with the challenge of "maximum impact living."

Deeper Life was an influential week. As Tom Allen left, he concluded with one thought for the student body, "I particularly appreciate your Dean at S.P.B.C. After all, he ain't he's my brother(in-law)."

The Rev. Ross Ingram, professor of Pastoral Evangelism at Canadian Bible College, spoke during morning and evening chapels during Deeper Life Week 1984, January 16-20.

Ingram spent the morning chapels encouraging students to see the "urgings and warnings to live in the disposal of your God given privileges," that God reveals to us in scripture.

The evening chapels concentrated on explaining the character and nature of God.

Each of these fine men helped enhance the spiritual growth of the college and its students.

Not Just Another Conference

Introducing a flood of fresh ideas and missiological concepts to SPBC was the 1983 Missionary Conference. Women's Ministerial Roles, Life as an M.K. (Missionary Kid), and Overseas Church Planting Techniques, were all just a few of the numerous topics covered in the three day seminar. Administered by Dr. David Rambo, President of Nyack Bible College, the conference served as another opportunity for the spiritual growth of St. Paul. The students came away with deep insight into the missionary life and the life of the church as a whole.

Senior Ted Nelson stated, "I thoroughly enjoyed the testimony of Dr. Rambo. I feel that the issues and challenges he presented were reliable ones and extremely necessary for the world Christian community. Through this conference and others like it, the students view of missions is greatly enhanced."

Black History Week Celebrated AT SPBC

In an effort to expose the college community to black concerns, ministry and history, SPBC hosted its second annual Black History Week February 20-24.

Last year the black students requested to have one week set aside in February to celebrate black history. February is designated as Black History Month across the United States.

Four speakers came to address various topics concerning black issues. Dr. C.P. Hinerman, pastor of Park Avenue United Methodist Church, addressed the topic of "The Integrated Church." Rev. Malcom White, Associate Minister of Keystone Baptist Church in Chicago, spoke on "The Present State of the Black Church." Mr. C. Edward Thomas, organist at Park Avenue Methodist Church, discussed "The Black Experience in Song" and ministered to the students in music. The fourth speaker, Dr. Howard Jones, Associate Evangelist on the Billy Graham Team, spoke on "Blacks in Missions."

The Black Student Committee included president Steve Crymes, secretary Verna Edwards, and advisor George Gianoulis.

Spring Banquet

Spring Banquet was held at the Chanhassen Dinner Theatre, like it is every year. Everyone dined in luxury and was entertained by the musical Annie. Everyone seemed to really enjoy themselves. Guys were in their tuxes or best suits, and girls in their long evening gowns or their best dressed. S.P.B.C. students never looked better.

Lights! Camera! Action!

The talent show has begun and a star is born, or should it be said that many stars are born?! This year's talent show was a wonderful spectacle of nationwide talent from California to Pennsylvania, all the way down to Texas and Florida. There was singing both serious and funny. The Fiddler On the Roof often appears as a favorite and this year the crowd was entertained by "Do You Love Me" by Amy Ilgenfritz and Mark Stevens. Oldies but goodies delighted the audience as Tim Almen and Dave Dunn presented their rendition of "Who's on First?" by Abbott and Costello. But the king of the evening had to have been Mike Campbell, comedian. He told jokes, sung and captivated 'his' audience with his corny and creative wit. The performers were creative and fully into their parts, and the evening was enjoyed by everyone.

Sadie Hawkins A Real Ho Down!

Everyone dressed in their western best on Friday September 23, as the Freshmen class and their officers brought to SPBC "Oklahoma, Sadie Hawkins 1983." It was an evening filled with fun, food, and fellowship.

Texas toasted cheese sandwiches, chili and ice cream was the chow for the evening. Brad Trosen, Chris Nelson, and Laura Hull gave an hour long country concert filled with good western humored jokes and songs. After the concert, couples visited "Marryin' Sam" where they could be "unofficially" married and get their pictures taken together to remember this glorious event.

Harvest Fest Is A Sophomore Success!

Brides, cowboys, clowns, and everything in between were brought together in a fun-filled October night.

Popcorn, carmeled apples, and soda could be purchased and enjoyed while one watched old Specbee flicks, played one of the various games, or watched Dr. Eagen, Denny Johnson and other SPBC celebrities get soaked as they bravely entered the dunking machine. If getting others wet wasn't your mode of revenge there were two handy stockages to keep your friends locked up in.

When the festivities were over a hayride put the perfect finishing touch on the sophomore sponsored Harvest Fest.

Peppers, Pinatas & A Little Limbo

Under the direction of president Jeff Olson, the junior class put together a Mexican Fiesta that was fun, unique, and very well prepared.

Served by junior class members dressed in colorful Mexican attire, dinner included tacos, enchiladas, and fried ice cream. Latic music played in the background while bright flowers were pinned in all the senorita's hair. After dinner the fun continued with limbo a pepper-eating contest and pinatas.

In keeping away from the usual romantic type banquet the Fiesta proved to be a time of pure fun and fellowship for all.

Bethlehem 1983!

On December 1, 1983, the senior class presented a play based on a modern nativity. Maria (Kathy Bontrager) and Joey (Bob Charles), a modern day Mary and Joseph have their child in a veterinary clinic with the help of a mid-wife and an absent-minded vet. The shepherds were truck drivers of "Shepherd Trucking." The waitress was the angel. The wise men were three renowned professors Uncle Don, Uncle Arnold, and Auntie Marilyn. King Harod was Harold Dudley a godfather in the mob. The play ended as the true nativity was read from the Bible and the characters dressed appropriately.

The play caused you to think how hard life must have been for Mary and Joseph through the virgin birth.

Graduation: A Time For Sorrow & Joy!

The time has come to be moving on as 106 seniors sat anxiously awaiting to get their diploma's. During the service concert choir sang and the Symphonic band played a few selections. Dr. Eagen said his words of congratulations and Lori Haars made her Senior Class President speech, even though she wasn't graduating.

The day started out beautifully but by the end of the graduation ceremonies there was a snow storm outside. Which made it hard for people traveling a long distance. But everyone graduated and that made it a beautiful day.

CONGRATULATIONS, CLASS OF '84!

Right now you may not want to see another book (yearbooks excepted!). But statistics bear out the prediction that you are among a privileged group, (yes, privileged) who will have a life-long relation with books.

Christian Publications is the publishing arm of The Christian and Missionary Alliance. For more than a century it has been producing and marketing books—Christian books—that inform, inspire, instruct, interpret.

So with our congratulations comes our offer to be your supplier of Christian books, Bibles, posters with a Christian message, and related products.

Christian Publications is as near as the mailbox or a telephone.

H. Robert Cowles

educated as though lives depend on you . . . because they do.

"This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein; for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success." Joshua 1:8 KJV
