Crown College

This Year at Crown

Mail Center Relocation

The new mail center, pictured to the left, allows for more space and is more conveniently located. The new location is just across the hall from where it had previously been.

Renovated Laboratories

The new science labs are a wonderful improvement and a great addition to the study of sciences at Crown.

Radio & Video

Many were delighted by Crown's new Radio and Video practicums. The picture below is where the magic happens for Crown's very own online radio program.

New Sign Proposal

A new sign was proposed this year and a picture of the possible sign appeared in Crown's school newspaper, the Storm Chaser.

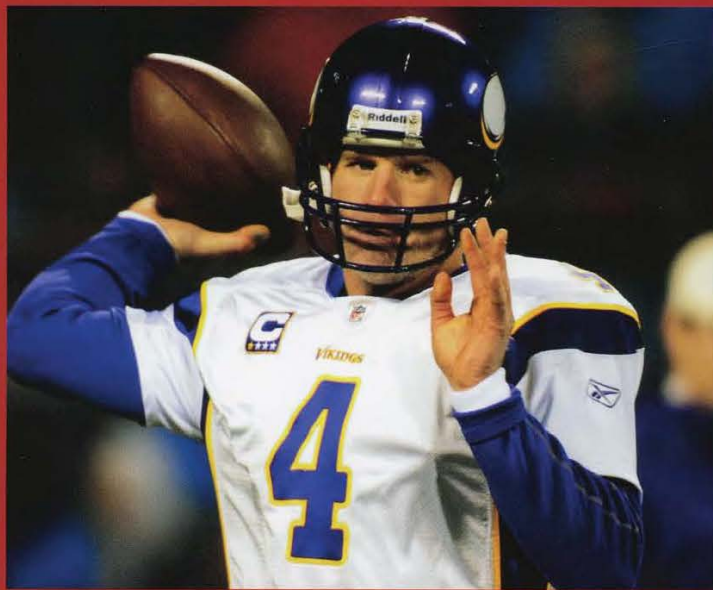

Dreds

A new trend swept the campus... dreadlocks! Many students around campus tried out this hairstyle including Darren Schweiger pictured to the far left.

This Year Across Minnesota

Brett Favre

(Above) In August 2009, Brett Favre came out of retirement to play for the Vikings. Favre led the team in a better than average season, and many hope he will return for another.

Target Field

(Right) The new Twins stadium was built to the delight of many. Between the new stadium and Joe Mauer's 8 year contract, new life has been breathed into the world of Minnesota baseball.

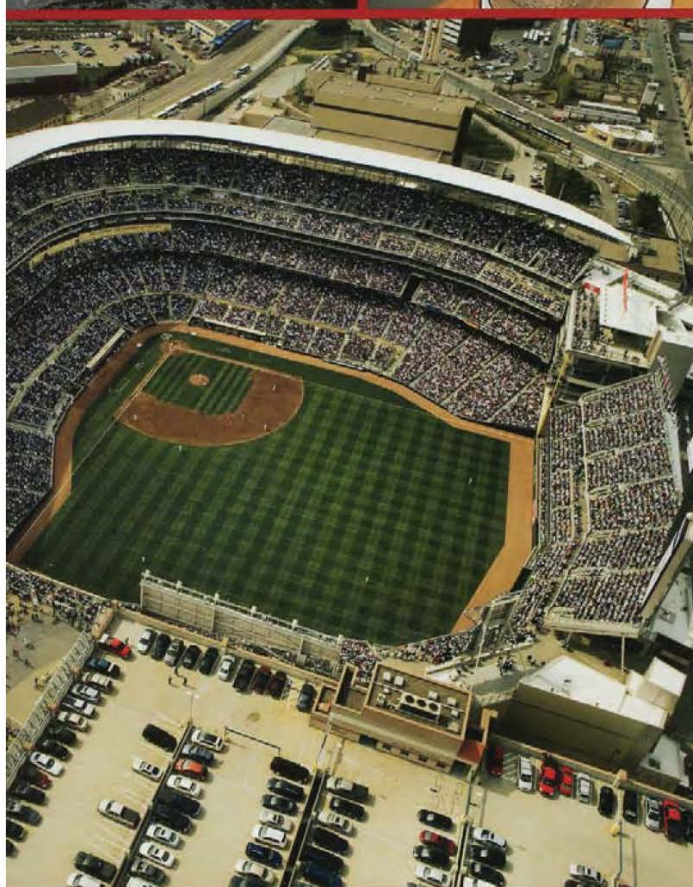

Strange Weather

(Left) Not only did Minnesota see its first snowless March in 132 years, but a tornado hit south of Downtown Minneapolis, causing a great deal of damage.

Tom Petters

(Left) The Minnesota businessman, who was charged with stealing as much as 3.65 billion dollars, was sentenced to 50 years in prison.

Pawlenty for President?

(Above) In June 2009, Governor Pawlenty announced he would not be running for re-election, sparking rumors that he will be running for President in 2012.

This Year Across the Nation

Let it SNOW

(Right) New records were reached for snowfall on the East Coast. Washington Dulles International Airport received 16" in one snowfall; their previous record had been 10.6" which fell in December 1964.

"You Lie!"

Universal Health Care

(Right) President Obama's health care bill was a topic of great controversy, but was passed on March 21, 2010.

BP Oil Spill

(Left) April 20, 2010 saw one of the worst oil spills in history. As oil flowed into the Gulf of Mexico, the public questioned BP's capabilities and priorities. Despite assurances that a solution was imminent, oil continued to spill months later.

Jay LENO

(Left) Leno's announcement that he was quitting the Tonight Show was met with surprise. Conan O'Brien hosted the show for a short while until Leno shocked the nation again by announcing his return to the show.

Celebrity Deaths

(Right) Both Billy Mays and Michael Jackson died in June 2009. Patrick Swayze died in September 2009.

2010 Winter Olympics

The Winter Olympics were held in Vancouver, BC Canada; 82 countries were represented. Canada took the most gold medals (14) and the United States took the most cumulative medals (37).

IPad

(Left) Launched in April 2010, Apple's new iPad is viewed by some as simply a new platform for gaming. However, others see it as the beginning of a revolution in publishing and education.

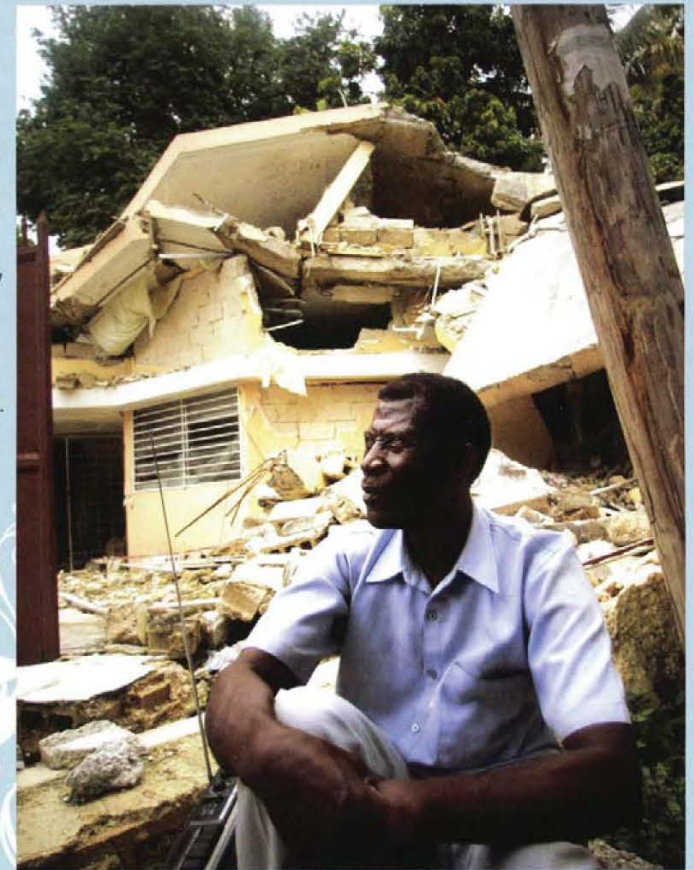

H1N1

(Right) By August 2009, there were an estimated 30,000 - 90,000 deaths due to the H1N1 virus. Children under age 5, the elderly, and pregnant women were considered to be at the highest risk for contracting the virus, better known as Swine Flu.

Earthquake

(Right) The world flocked to help after a 7.0 magnitude earthquake hit Haiti, just outside Port-au-Prince on January 12, 2010. The city was largely destroyed. An estimated quarter of a million people were killed.

Google vs China

(Below) Google threatened to pull out of China due to the country's strict censorship of the internet.

I.C.E. Trips

Students at Crown College have the opportunity to participate in ICE (InterCultural Experience) Trips each year. Teams are sent all around the globe to countries like China, Thailand, Germany, Israel, the United States, Africa, and many other locations. There is a team of mission leaders who are accepted through the student leadership program that work with the ISL director throughout the school year to recruit and develop teams. By the time teams are ready to go, they are prepared to minister and serve cross-culturally alongside of missionaries, church groups, and international organizations throughout the world. Most of these trips occur during Spring Break and Summer Break.

During the past few years, the goal of the ICE program has been to encourage students to think missionally no matter what major they are studying or what vocation they are called to in the future. Nursing majors, business majors, athletes, communications majors, music majors, ministry majors, etc. are called to share the Gospel and the love of Christ to all cultures and religions whether

CAMPUS HAPPENINGS

An intimate atmosphere of candles, the cross, and easels set up for campus artists, coupled with a worship team comprised of a variety of people from across the campus, Scripture readers, and the campus dance ensemble all together made up Crown's Easter chapel for spring 2010. These combined elements truly demonstrate the heart and soul of what is important to the Crown College chapels. The 2009-2010 chapels revealed creativity, community, and excellence. Chaplain

Bill Kuhn, assistant Kelly Ripley, Worship Director Jessica Jarus-Pesola, worship leaders, as well as the student chaplains all helped to bring together the chapels of the 2009-2010 school year

This year's chapels featured a variety of on and off campus speakers. Highlighted among them were Governor Tim Pawlenty and Pastor John Piper of Bethlehem Baptist Church. A few other highlighted speakers were Pastor Tim Owen and Pastor David Smith who each led a passionate Deeper Life Week. Pastor Tim Owen led the fall semester Deeper Life week and Pastor David Smith led Deeper Life week during the spring semester

The professionalism and growth of Crown's chapel ministry is exhilarating and continues to set the stage for greater chapels in the years to come.

GIT

Global Impact Team

Every major a mission

Global Impact Team is a student-led organization committed to motivating the Crown campus towards fulfilling the Great Commission through prayer, missions awareness, and meeting the social, physical, and spiritual needs of the global community. The 2009-2010 GIT sponsored the fall missions fest, several GIT chapels, the Psalms 2:8 prayer project, mini-missions fest, and four student ministry projects in different areas of the world. Students were encouraged to aid in bringing fellow students the Gospel through giving to the four student ministry projects in Ulanbataar, Mongolia; Doi Saket, Thailand; Mali; and Cambodia. Money went towards staffing and maintaining a college student life center in Ulanbataar, providing transportation, food, and clothing in Doi Saket, building a student center in Mali, and funding Theological Training by Extension for church lay leaders in Cambodia.

Valorie Battleson and Lisa Kue during Missions Festival

The three day missions fest was a whirlwind of activity, including ethnic dancing, Globe Trekking, special chapels, and the Amazing Race. Globe Trekking involved over 100 student volunteers to run the rooms, and with their help, over 300 students, faculty and staff toured Western Europe, experienced the Killing Fields in Cambodia, learned Urdu in India, walked through a Peruvian market, and danced in a Gabonese church. The keynote speaker for this year's missions fest was Nareth May, the U.S. Cambodian C&MA district president and survivor of the Khmer Rouge's Killing Fields. Crown professors and off-campus speakers with experience in varied fields hosted several seminars, geared towards helping students find out how their major and interests fit into missions.

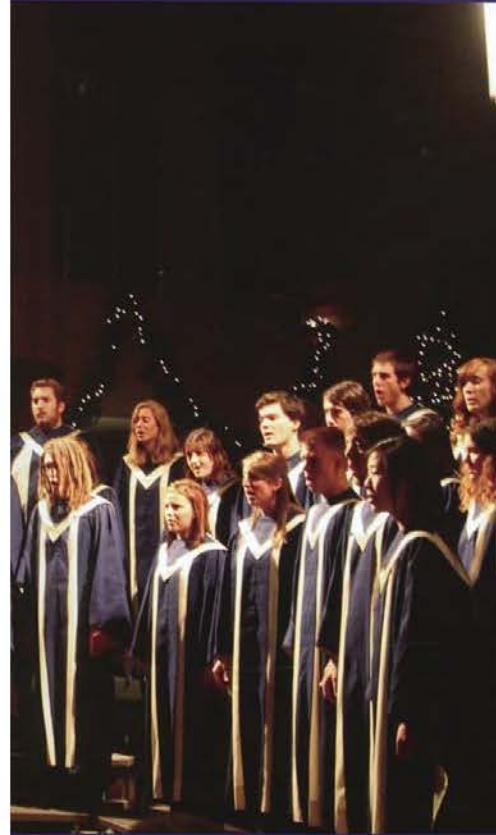

Missions Fest 2009

Christmas in Crown Chapel was a production in which many groups participated. The pictures above show the participation of the College Choir, Women's Choir, Brass Ensemble, and Dance Ensemble. Many other groups were involved as well.

CHRISTMAS in CROWN CHAPEL

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

The fall semester
theatrical performance

The Simpson stage came alive this past Christmas season with the festive tidings of Scrooge. Tiny Tim, and the rest of the gang in Crown's fall production of the timeless classic A Christmas Carol. With festive sets, fanciful costumes, and a few hundred pinches of glitter a cast of over 20 students and staff brought the familiar holiday story to life for audiences of all ages. From December 10th-13th the colorful cast delighted theatre goers, showing that a little time a lot of energy and a new found love for the stage made this season's theatre line-up at Crown a must see Dueling sword fights, hilarious satire and sweet serenades made Crown's spring production of Gilbert and Sullivan's Pirates of Penzance an instant hit! With brilliant costumes, amazing musical numbers, and stellar acting and choreography, the Crown Chapel was creatively transformed into a cozy seaside cove featuring a colorful cast of kooky pirates, beautiful maidens, peculiar policemen, and a show-stopping Major General! Crown's theatrical team rose to the occasion once again, presenting a fun, family friendly dramatic experience for everyone in attendance!

STUDENT ACTIVITIES BOARD (S.A.B.) 2009-2010

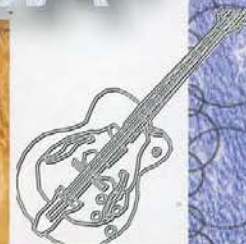

S.A.B. started the semester off with the Carnival event by smashing pies in Professor Zapf, Dr. Carlbloom, and Bill Kuhn's faces. Homecoming came and went with yet another broken bone. Last year was a broken collarbone and this year a broken leg. What will next year bring? SAB took students on a trip into the past with the 70s Bash. Thank goodness the candy industry has changed their products - most people did not enjoy the candy from the 70s. The Fall Festival brought out the kid in many students with the tricycle races. Who would have thought that Troy Mapes would be beaten by a 5 year old? The Student Development ladies will always be remembered for their performance during Mock Rock. Who could forget the Bouncers at the door confiscating cookies and keeping Matt Kortus out for a while? Thanks to all the golfers that came to the Black Light Mini Golf course, the custodial staff is still finding neon golf balls in the Fireside Room. At the Professor Hide and Seek students were able to witness another side of the professors and staff. We never expected that Professor Johnny Grainger would turn punk, Elise Duerkop and Jesse Wagner could pull off being Goth so well, that Professor Jim Zapf was really a professor from Oxford, or that Kimmie Moehring and her roommate would dress as men for the night. The year's activities were a blast thanks to the planning of S.A.B. and the participation from the students!

SENATE '09 '10

The 2009-2010 school year was a busy one for Senate. They ran a successful Bible drive, purchased several games for the students, including a carpetball table, an air hockey table, and a tetherball, and added a punching bag to the fitness center. They upgraded the TV in the Storm Cafe to a flat screen plasma wall mount. Who can forget the Invisible Children presentation that opened everyone's heart to the struggles of overseas children? This year's Senate also investigated putting a mural on the empty wall going up the athletic stairs, atomic clocks in all the classrooms and main gathering spaces, extending visiting hours and library hours, and adjusting the printing fee payment options. Their last two acts of service this year were purchasing a portable sound system to allow more Crown bands to play in the coffee shop, and cleaning up and sprucing up Parley Lakefront with new sand, a new dock, a permanent firepit, and eventually picnic tables.

2009-2010 was a year of growth for Mu Kappa, Crown's club for missionary kids (MKs), third-culture kids (TCKs), and international students. Mu Kappa doubled in size as it welcomed new members from countries including Honduras, Kenya, Hong Kong, Thailand, and Austria. The club is a registered chapter of Mu Kappa International, an organization that celebrates the experiences of students who have grown up overseas. Mu Kappa focuses on promoting growth and support in four main areas: cultural, social, practical, and spiritual. The club provides assistance for students coming in from other countries as they adjust to living in the United States. Mu Kappa also seeks to network TCKs with others who have shared international experiences. It is a group that encourages students to embrace their past as they prepare for their future here at Crown.

This year, Mu Kappa provided multiple opportunities for fellowship in and outside of the club. Mu Kappa hosted its first ever "Culture Feast" which gave an opportunity for members to share their experiences and home food with the Crown community. Mu Kappa also established a MK to MK mentoring program. Other activities included an annual gingerbread house-making contest, a progressive international dinner, and a corn maze race. This year, Mu Kappa also joined TCKs from St. Cloud State University, Bethel University, and Northwestern College to celebrate cultural events. Even though it was a year full of new things for Mu Kappa, hopes for more growth in the future still soar. Thank you to all who have invested in Mu Kappa this year!

S.I.F.E (STUDENTS IN FREE ENTERPRISE)

SIFE works to bring together leaders to create a better and more sustainable world through good business practices. SIFE is the largest student organization in the world, with 40 participating countries. Through a series of projects the SIFE team was able to help the Crown campus and local communities. These projects promote life skills for students on campus, and they also help to improve the quality of life for those in the surrounding Twin Cities areas. Projects fulfilled a specific criteria set for the SIFE competition at the end of the year. Some projects that the SIFE team undertook for the year were: First Impressions, What's My Score?, TerraCylce, and Mock Interviews. Crown partnered with SIFE for the Let's Can Hunger Campbell's challenge. Together, with the help of local businesses and Crown, the SIFE team collected 540 items to donate to a local food shelf. This year the Crown SIFE team was also able to compete at a regional competition in Minneapolis. The team won second runner-up and received a trophy to commemorate their accomplishment.

WOMEN'S MINISTRY

Women's Ministry is designed for fellowship and unity for the women on this campus. Each semester we have a retreat with worship, special speakers, and testimonies. Throughout the semester we try to have monthly events like worship nights and dance nights. We offer support through mentoring, counseling, lust free living, and other opportunities to connect with other women on a regular basis.

NATIONAL SOCIETY OF COLLEGIATE SCHOLARS

Jeffrey Ingle, Caitlyn Curtis, Hannah Dean and Brady Griffith represent the Crown College chapter of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars

This was the first full year of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars at Crown College. NSCS is a nationwide honor society that has chapters on close to 250 campuses and now boasts close to 700,000 members. Crown is one of five campuses in Minnesota to have a chapter. It primarily recognizes first and second year students by inviting those with a 3.4 cumulative GPA to join the organization. Those with the opportunity to receive the invitation can decline or accept, but those who choose to join are able to tap in to the various benefits of membership. For example, there are several scholarships available. We also held a Resume Building Seminar for members as well as an informational session on internships, each presented by Mr. Don Talbert from Career Services. In addition, NSCS sponsored an Integrity Week February 8-12 in which a banner (pictured above) was hung in the Coffee Shoppe where students and staff who stand for integrity were encouraged to sign it. We are looking forward to next year and the growth of our chapter. We are looking at expanding the impact of NSCS off-campus by establishing mentoring relationships with kids at a local elementary school.

DANCE ENSEMBLE

The Crown College Dance Ensemble provides opportunities for students to glorify God by seeking to develop technical excellence in their craft, creating and performing new dance works, and supporting and encouraging one another in each one's gifts. The ensemble is committed to the creative communication of God's heart through work that upholds Biblical truths while maintaining artistic integrity. In all the Ensemble does, ultimately their desire is to offer themselves and their talents as an act of worship to the Creator.

This year the Dance Ensemble participated in Christmas in Crown Chapel, Chamber Choir Spring Concert, Jazz Night, Arts Chapel, and presented the first dance concert at Crown.

LET US PRAISE HIS NAME WITH DANCING!

William Allen, advisor to the Storm Chaser, takes a moment to peruse the paper.

Liz Crowley served as the Business Manager for the Storm Chaser.

Kelli McKeeman lets out frustration on the paper. She served as an Associate Editor for the Storm Chaser.

Joe Lombardo ponders the Storm Chaser in the shade. He served as the Web Director.

Cory Trytten relaxes under the Storm Chaser. He served as the Layout Editor for 2009-2010.

THE STORM CHASER

Erin Brandt served as Editor-in-Chief for the 2009-2010 school year.

Megan Lotz was an Associate Editor for the Storm Chaser.

With the rise in media coming faster and faster, it is important that young adults have the opportunity to engage media in as many ways as possible before hitting the real world. Beyond passively watching television, engaging the web or even class lectures, the Storm Chaser gives Crown students an opportunity to create media content in a way that truly makes a difference. From the Editor-in-Chief to a staff writer, from the Business Manager to a reader, anyone can engage Crown's newspaper and have the freedom to express his or her ideas through the medium of print. This has been and continues to be the goal of the Storm Chaser. The Storm Chaser newspaper is an information source to the Crown College Community, and it is published as a learning experience for students of all ages.

During the 2009 - 2010 school year, the Storm Chaser has continued to become a core part of student life at Crown College. This year's staff launched a website companion for the newspaper, and seeks to keep the students body informed on topics that are relevant to their lives. The staff was expanded to allow more students to get involved, and hopes to continue the pursuit of excellence for years to come.

STORM TRACKER

The goal of the Storm Tracker is to capture the essence of the school year and to portray the events and people through visual images and the written word. We hope that this book is a representation of the 2009-2010 school year at Crown College. We linked the Chapel theme of "Going Global" to the contents of the book, as the theme has permeated all aspects of the year. Our goal is for the Storm Tracker to display how God has been continually working at Crown College. It is our desire that this book will be a reminder to you of your experience at Crown College and the ways in which God worked in your life during these years. We hope that you will hold on to and look back at this book for years to come.

This volume of the Storm Tracker was created by a few returning staff members and many new staff members. The new members included Rachel Bebee, Bethany Kettler, Joshua Pelkey, Georgia Rose, Stephanie Simmons, and Darac Vang. These new members joined Adviser Johnny Grainger, Senior Editor Danielle Barton, and Sports Editor Nathan Kucera. Each member of the staff played a very important role in gathering information, designing pages, and editing. Thanks to everyone who helped create this book!

ENCORE!

ENCORE!, a student team from Crown College, reaches out to churches and communities through a production of visual arts, drama, comedy, music, and dance. The program weaves compelling stories together with talented actors and voices to bring Biblical truths to life. Each show creatively challenges audiences to examine their beliefs and commitments and to honor their Creator. The seven-member cast of Crown students travels to many churches and schools throughout the school year

LIFEVOICE

LifeVoice is a contemporary worship band representing Crown College. These six men and women combine their vocal and instrumental abilities to create an inspirational worship concert of contemporary Christian music.

The worship ministry of LifeVoice reaches people of all ages as they perform at a variety of locations including churches, schools, youth events, and camps. This year, LifeVoice traveled extensively throughout Minnesota and Iowa. While the group enjoys singing and playing together, their real motivation is to serve Christ and their desire to share His love with those they meet.

This year's group includes:

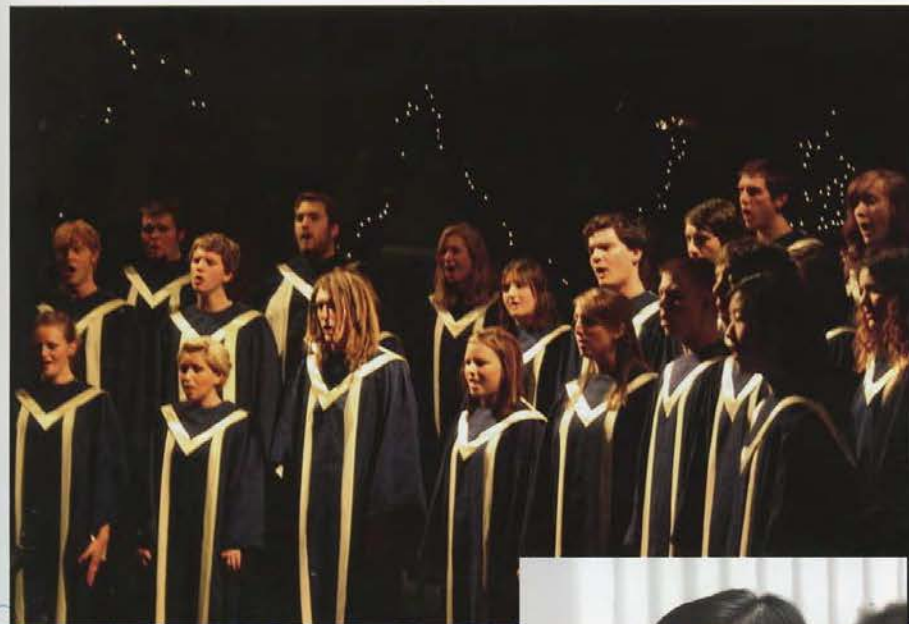

Zac Paquette - Electric Guitar/Vocals
Ashley Walzak - Lead Vocals
Liz Crowley - Keyboard/Vocals
Gene Iserman - Acoustic Guitar/ Vocals
Lucas Anderson - Drums
Josiah Enns - Bass
Adam Kapellen - Sound Technician

COMMUNITY OUTREACH AND EVANGELISM

Students signed this poster as an encouragement to Mary Virnig.

What is C.O.R.E.?

C.O.R.E.'s mission is to express the saving grace of Jesus Christ through relational, hands-on service of community needs to impact the homeless, elderly, imprisoned, children, ill, and generally needy. C.O.R.E. is a student organization of Crown College aiming to further develop servant leaders who bring diverse gifts and abilities to the group. Group members learn and grow in many areas including: communicating the Gospel of Jesus Christ, teamwork experience, organization management and operations skills, relationship building, and the practice of demonstrating love for the people Christ loved. The group's success is built on a foundation of shared values - hope found in Jesus Christ, servant leadership, community service, and holistic ministry. Currently, twenty-eight students are involved, and the group continues to grow. This year the team was joined by a new advisor, Rick Larson.

What did C.O.R.E. do this year?

Team Homeless

- Marie Sandvick Center: Two times per week, students served meals to the homeless and interacted with them.

Team Elderly

- Westview Acres/Good Samaritan: A team including Dr. Wilbert Ratledge and music students conducted a Sunday morning service and another group of students spent time with the residents on Sunday evenings.

Team Ill

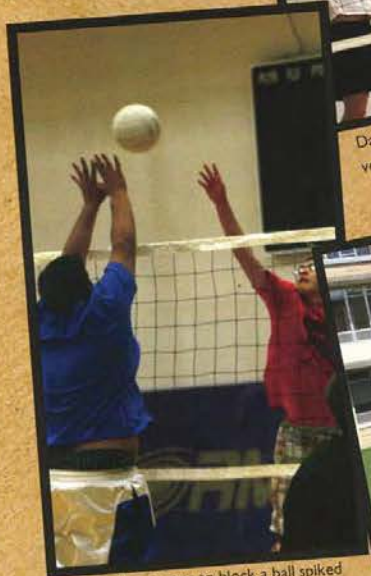

- University of Minnesota Children's Hospital: Regular ministry with children who were receiving bone marrow transplants
- Care Boxes: Students prepared and sent care boxes to children with cancer or children who have lost a sibling to cancer or other major illness.
- Be the Match Marrow Foundation: Students conducted a Marrow Donor Registry Drive on campus in honor of a current cancer patient Mary Virnig - 138 people signed-up during the Marrow Donor Registry Drive.

Other Activities

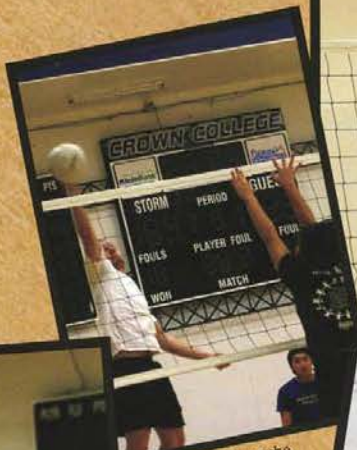

- C.O.R.E. delivered 65 backpacks full of school supplies and encouraging notes to Carver County schools for children who could not afford supplies.

This has been an incredible year with roughly 50 service trips throughout the Twin Cities from the Waconia area to the St. Paul area.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

ART

Visual Art at Crown in '09-'10 saw another convincing year, producing two student exhibitions: Fall Drawings '09 and Spring Paintings '10. Student work continues to show outstanding results, and special projects, such as the 4th consecutive Easter Chapel live drawing display, show that visual art is a truly inspiring addition to campus life. God has been glorified at Crown in the Visual Arts!

HMONG STUDENT FELLOWSHIP

This year HSF's theme was 'live as you are called' and the theme verse was Ephesians 4:1-5, 'As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism... we were called to one hope when you were called -- one Lord, one faith, one baptism... HSF wanted a bigger vision and focus this year, so the group broke off into teams and each team went to a different church in the Twin Cities area and helped out with any possible ministry opportunity that the church offered. Once a month the teams would get together and share with each other what had been going on at their church and to get the ministries started, but seeing the fruits of the labor made it worthwhile. In addition to this main project, HSF travelled to Two Rivers, WI to help out with a youth revival. The youth revival was an awesome experience, and it was obvious that God was molding the youth group. Another trip was made to help out the Menominee Youth Group. Some of the activities included a youth retreat, testimony nights, game nights, HSF retreat, Valentine dinner and talent show, praise and worship nights, and nights of fellowship with one another. HSF is about being a family of believers that exist to live out the call that God has commanded, whether it is in the Twin Cities or within oneself. HSF's purpose is to build others up and work as a team for God's glory.

CANDIDS: STICKING TOGETHER!

The Storm finished the season with a 4-6 record and a 4th place finish in the UMAC north division. A disappointing season in many regards, the Storm also had many highlights including victories over Macalester, Trinity, UM-Morris, and Eureka. A pair of heartbreaking losses also took place including a 35-27 homecoming loss in the rain to St. Scholastica and a 68-62 overtime loss in the Metrodome to MacMurray (IL).

Many records were broken over the course of the season as the Storm offense finished 9th among NCAA Division III teams in scoring. The season finale put Crown in the NCAA record books when they defeated Eureka College 69-63, and the two teams combined for the most points in regulation. Junior quarterback, Adam Hayes, now holds the career mark for touchdown passes with 48 while receivers Drew Milner and Steve Boger surpassed Brandon Mattson ('99) for the all-time receptions mark with 133 and 132 respectively.

All-Conference 1st Team honorees were Adam Hayes (QB), Steve Boger (WR), Nick Skumatz (OL), Joey Latsha (OL), and Robert Yang (ST). 2nd Team honorees were Tyler Hallblade (RB), Callan McKinley (TE), Marquise Dixon (DB), and Brandon Green (DB).

The season started off with four tough non-conference games against schools much larger than Crown. Although Crown was unable to bring down any of these four teams, the games served as a valuable growing experience for the team that helped them prepare for their conference schedule.

One season highlight for the Storm was the second game against the University of Minnesota Morris, who ended their season as the conference champions. Crown stuck with Morris all through the game and tied Morris at one goal each, which brought the game into overtime. Crown was the first team to score against the conference champions. Although the Storm may not have ended the game victorious, their performance was exceptional. Coach Josh Dunwoody said, "This was one of my favorite games from the 2009 campaign. To see the guys go toe-to-toe with one of the best teams in the conference was a great experience for the team and for me as a coach."

The team ended the season with a double-overtime victory over Northwestern. This victory was especially important because it not only gave Crown their first winning regular season in the UMAC, but it also propelled them to a 3rd place finish in the conference.

Although it means a lot for the team to make it to the play-offs, they were unable to get past the first round. Coach Dunwoody said, "While the season did not end exactly as we had pictured, we were able to accomplish our one goal of earning a spot in the conference tournament, and we look forward to using this to go even further next season. All in all, this season was a huge step in the right direction for Storm men's soccer, and I am very proud of these guys."

Women's Soccer

The team ended their season with an overall record of seven wins and eleven losses. Their conference record was six wins and eight losses. This is one more win than the previous season (2008) and the second most conference wins in the team's history. Coach Prusha said, "What I enjoyed seeing the most this year was the team working hard to consistently put a better product on the field. We had games we would like to do over, but overall I am very proud of this team and their effort this season."

Several of the team's athletes were awarded All-Conference honors. Senior Missy Herrity was named to the 1st Team All-Conference. Herrity led the team with 11 goals. Her season also included two hat tricks and two game winning goals.

Senior Stephanie Lally was another senior awarded to the 1st Team All-Conference. This was the third time she was awarded this honor. She was unable to receive the award the previous season due to an ACL injury. Lally led the team with four assists and was the third highest in goals scored, with a total of four goals.

Senior Midfielder Bethany Rossetti was named Honorable Mention All-Conference. This was Rossetti's third All-Conference award. She tied for second in number of goals scored for the team with five -- two of which were game winning goals.

Also named Honorable Mention All-Conference was freshman defender Kelly Anderson. She played a particularly important defensive role this season after the team's top goal-keeper, Carrie Meyer, ended her season early with an injury.

Volleyball

The 2009 Crown College volleyball season was a season of growth. The 2009 season will go down as one that was challenging in many ways, but one that I hope brought the ladies to know more of who God is, His grace, and our reliance on Him for our daily life. We had 16 women on the roster who gave their time and energy to each other day in and day out. Every year we pick a team verse and God seems to work through us to grow us and stretch us in ways we would not have seen. This was evident this season through Paul's word in 2nd Corinthians 12:9-10 "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness. Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me...for when I am weak, then I am strong." We realized we cannot do this on our own strength and accord, but through our weakness His grace shines through. It's humbling to experience this truth, but it is important to learn. Our seniors, Lovina Kramer (DS, IL), Amy Stenlund (DS, Mound, MN) and Laura Plowman (RS, Excelsior, MN) finished their college career with a win. Only a few teams in the nation will be able to end their season on a win. These young women made the 2009 season a success through their best efforts and attitudes as well as a win against Finlandia to end the 2009 season! - Coach Kimmie

Cross Country

Leading the women's team all through the season was freshman Summer Pfaff. Her personal best 6K time was 26:06, which she earned at La Crosse, Wisconsin.

According to Coach Peterson, "Summer [Pfaff] is becoming one of the top runners in our conference."

Leading the men's team was another freshman, Mike Palmer. Palmer's best time for an 8K came at Eau Claire, Wisconsin. He timed in at 28:27, improving his time by 1:30.

This year the Storm had the privilege of hosting the conference meet on Saturday, October 31. Nine UMAC teams competed on this rainy and muddy day. Crown

Women's team earned 7th place and the men's team finished in 8th.

"We're a young team and our core is very strong. With continued effort and discipline, I'm confident that we will advance further in our conference over the next couple years. As a team, I'm pleased that we have taken positive steps to trust God for strength to train and race hard," Coach Rick Peterson said.

Golf

Year in Review

One highlight this fall was senior Gatjeak Gew's performance at Northwestern, where he placed second with a score of 74. Born in Sudan, Gew had never played golf before the summer of 2007. Gew's hard work and practice have really paid off to bring him such an accomplishment.

In the spring season, one highlight was the Northwestern - Crown dual at Island View Golf Club near the Crown campus. Crown beat Northwestern 321 to 359. Gatjeak Gew led both teams with a score of 76 and was followed closely by David Masinter, who came in second with a score of 77. Although unable to participate in the fall season, the 2008-2009 Conference Champion, Masinter, was able to join the team in the spring. The team enjoyed having him back. Also scoring well, Stephen Tisch and Mark Boettcher ended with a tie for fourth place.

Stephen Tisch was the team's best and most consistent golfer throughout the year. He ended the year with a tie for 8th place at the Upper Midwest Athletic Conference - just six strokes away from the leader. This was just one of Tisch's many great matches.

With unlimited access to a great golf course right next door, something that the other conference schools cannot offer, the Crown golfers are given the opportunity to really grow as golfers during their time here at Crown. The growth and success of players like Gatjeak Gew is really a testament to the great facilities available to Crown golfers.

Men's Basketball

The 2009-2010 campaign started out with high hopes of achieving individual and team goals. We welcomed nine new athletes to an already seasoned roster.

On February 16, 2010 Mike Landers was named UMAC player of the week for men's basketball. During the weekend, Landers averaged 18.6 points and 5.3 rebounds per game to go along with eight total assists. He shot 58 percent from the floor and stroked 44 percent from beyond the 3-point line.

Going into the final weekend of the season, the Storm needed to win one of two games to head to the UMAC post-season tournament. Unfortunately, the team came up short against Minnesota-Morris and Presentation, ending the season with an overall record of 4-21.

conference record of 4-10, and finishing seventh in the UMAC conference.

Seniors Mike Landers and Jake Jarvis led the Storm in points per game with 13.6 and 12.2 respectively. Junior Maurice Lloyd led the team in field goal percentage

(2-pointers) at 52.3 percent. Freshman Taylor Jones led the Storm's outside attack in field goal percentage (3-pointers) at 42.9 percent.

- Even though the Storm fell short of its goal of making it into post-season play, we fought valiantly and competed the whole season with perseverance and pride. We definitely lived out our team scripture, Colossians 3:23 "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men."

Women's Basketball

Unfortunately, the Storm were only able to win one game this season. The win came late in the season in an exciting game against North Central College. The Storm were down for most of the game, but they were able to keep the score close all through the game. The Storm took the lead with 1:38 left in the game with a jump shot by Steph Zroka making the score 49-47, and they never looked back. The Storm scored five more points to North Central's two. Judy Mundt led both teams in points scored, with a total of 21. Mundt also led Crown in steals and assists.

Throughout the season the Storm were led by freshman Judy Mundt. She was first in scoring with a total of 225 points and an average of 11.8 points per game. Mundt also led the team in three-points and steals with 19 each. Following Mundt in total points scored was freshman Jessica Lemke, with a total of 162. Lemke also led the team in rebounds with 111.

Baseball

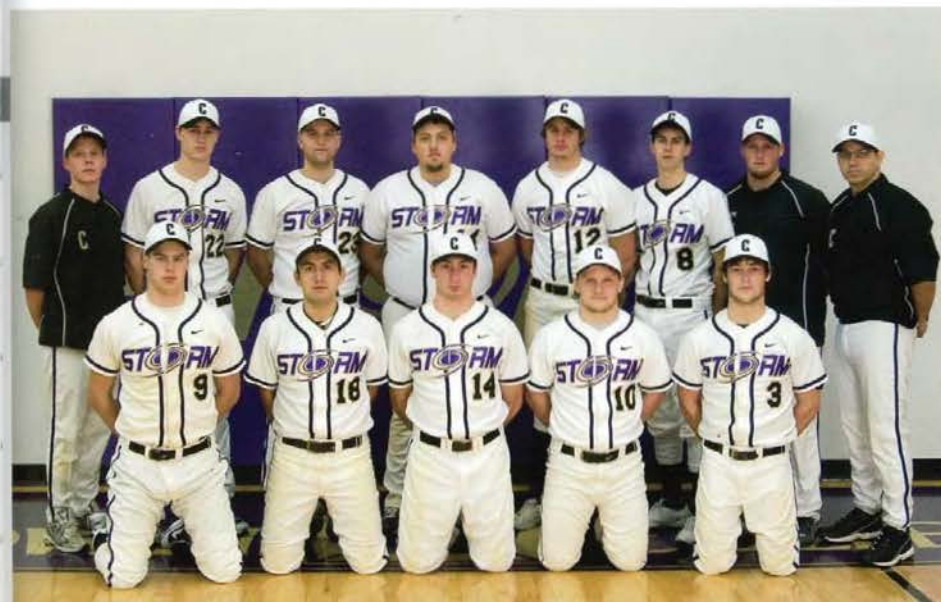

The Crown College baseball team started the season off with high hopes for what God was going to do with them throughout the 2010 season. It was going to take a lot of discipline and extra time for many of the young men to become prepared for the team's first game down in McPherson, KS. With slightly over 10 players on the team, each of the guys would have to know more than one position on the field, and this would take many more hours of additional work to be ready. At the beginning of the season, the team set goals for their focus, and at the end of the year they were hoping to look back upon what they had accomplished. The number one goal for the baseball team this year was to glorify God with their play on the field, and their second goal was to get better each and every day. For many of the players looking back over the entirety of the season there is evidence of tremendous growth in the Lord as well as their baseball knowledge and abilities! Praise God for the leadership on this year's team and the legacy that Rocky and other important players left for the future Crown College baseball program!

Softball

This year's team was very young, with a majority of the team being freshmen. There were also only two returning players Caitlyn Curtis and Kaylynn Annis.

Joining the Storm in the 2010 season as the new softball head coach was Ed Harkness. Harkness has an extensive background in coaching, with 27 years of experience. His coaching experiences include high school, Junior Olympic, and summer leagues.

Unfortunately, the Storm were unable to win any of their games. That being said, the team did have some personal highlights. Caitlyn Curtis led the team in runs scored with 11 and stolen bases with 14. Not only did

Curtis lead the team in stolen bases, but she stole the second most bases in the conference. Leading the team in batting was Rebecca Edwards with an average of 2.46 and 8 runs batted in. The season was clearly not all the team had hoped it would be, but with a young team they can only hope to grow in experience and talent in the future years.

Congratulations to The Crown College Class of 2010

The Storm Tracker Staff would like to thank everyone who helped with the making of this yearbook especially those who sent pictures and information.

A very special thanks goes to Juanita Kissell who provided multitudes of pictures. Also providing pictures were the Storm Chaser photographers: Beth Kettler, Holly Quittem, Isaac Bird, Hannah Yang, and Laura Van Hoy. The team in marketing was also extremely helpful in providing pictures, and Tim Prusha graciously allowed the use of his "Going Global" graphics for the cover design.

Without the help of all these people and many others, this book would be full of white empty pages. Thanks again for your help - it is very appreciated!

THANKS!

Thanks for another great year at Crown College!
