North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO)

from The American Economy: A Historical Encyclopedia

A collective security alliance organized under the North Atlantic Treaty of 1949.

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) was formed by the North Atlantic Treaty of 1949. Original members were the United States, the United Kingdom, Canada, France, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Norway, Denmark, and Iceland. Later several more European countries joined NATO: Greece and Turkey (1952); West Germany (1955); Spain (1982); and Hungary, Poland, and the Czech Republic (1999). Russia joined in 2002, and NATO Allies decided at the 2002 summit in Prague to invite seven other countries to join: Bulgaria, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Romania, Slovakia, and Slovenia. Over the years, NATO commitments have consumed the greatest share of America’s defense budget. By the end of the twentieth century the NATO countries counted for some 40 percent of U.S. foreign trade ($684,478 million), including 44 percent ($308,478 million) and 37 percent ($376,000 million) of American exports from and imports to foreign countries, respectively.

The U.S.-sponsored European Recovery Program (the Marshall Plan), a massive financial aid package to Western Europe, laid a foundation for the collective security scheme by developing a shared belief that only an economically rehabilitated Europe could effectively resist potential communist subversion or Soviet aggression. Since January 1950 when NATO approved plans for integrated, or coordinated, defense against the Soviet Union, the United States has subsidized the massive buildup and rearmament of Western Europe. Additionally, by the end of the 1960s the United States...

After pasting the citation, make sure the font matches the rest of your paper!
Lists

Database lists can be used for many things!

Just one of them is helping you cite multiple resources at once!
In Crown InfoSearch, making lists is as easy as clicking the save button!
To view your list, click 'My Items'
To save your list for later, sign in!

In Crown InfoSearch, log in with your Crown Username and Password.
To cite the selected items all at once, click the Cite button at the top of the list.
Citation Style

After choosing a citation style (APA, MLA, etc.) the entire list will be cited for you.
Making lists in other databases, such as EBSCO, is very similar to Crown InfoSearch.

To add an item to a list in EBSCO, click on:

- [Add to folder]
- [Folder +]
To access your list, click on the folder at the top of the screen:

If you want to save your list for next time, sign in! Sign in with Google or create an account!
Check the boxes next to the items you want to cite or select all.

Use "Save to file" to generate the citations!

There are many guides online to help you cite sources correctly!

One of our favorites for MLA and APA is Purdue Owl

To find it, simply Google: MLA Owl or APA Owl!

Citing an Author or Authors

A Work by Two Authors: Name both authors in the signal phrase or in parentheses each time you cite the work. Use the word "and" between the authors' names within the text and use the ampersand in parentheses.

Research by Wegener and Petty (1994) supports...

(Wegener & Petty, 1994)

A Work by Three to Five Authors: List all the authors in the signal phrase or in parentheses the first time you cite the source. Use the word "and" between the authors' names within the text and use the ampersand in parentheses.

(Kernis, Cornell, Sun, Berry, & Harlow, 1993)

In subsequent citations, only use the first author's last name followed by "et al." in the signal phrase or in parentheses.

(Kernis et al., 1993)

In et al., et should not be followed by a period.
